Russia Claims U. S. Plane Shot Down, Threatens To Retaliate With Rockets

Princess Margaret

Princess Marries Commoner Today

LONDON (AP) — Princess Margaret ends her years as a bachelor girl at noon Friday and becomes Mrs. Antony Armstrong-Jones

London roared a mighty salute to the princess in the early hours of the wedding day.

Thousands still thronged the streets as the hands of the clock passed midnight. They milled around Westminster Abbey, the palaces and Clarence House, the home of Princess Margaret and Queen Mother Elizabeth.

Traffic Jam

Vehicles jammed the center of the city, bringing traffic conditions the Royal Automobile Club described as "the worst London has ever known."

While the celebrating swirled on unabated in the streets, Margaret dined quietly with Queen Elizabeth II and the Queen Mother.

Armstrong-Jones slipped away in the early evening for a stag party. He returned to Buckingham Palace shortly before midnight.

The site of the bachelor party was not disclosed. Ronald Armstrong-Jones, the bridegroom's father, said only a few friends attended.

And only a few people spotted young Armstrong-Jones as he drove in through the gates of the palace.

"There he is," a woman shouted. The crowd then pressed forward but he had disappeared behind the walls.

Sunny Skies

Lights burned throughout the night at the abbey as workmen rushed to complete preparations for the marriage setting. Huge banks of flowers were installed and workmen covered the high altar with a blaze of gold and silver vessels, the abbey's service which is brought out only on rare occasions.

The forecast for the wedding day was for warm temperatures and sunny skies.

Under British law, the government is raising Margaret's allowance from $25,200 to $42,000 per year.

Mother Sees Wind Carry Son Aloft

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—A young mother told Thursday of trying to grab her young son sucked into the air by a tornado that destroyed the family home and injured the entire family.

"We could see him floating around in the air," Mrs. Larry Allen said. "I tried to reach him but couldn't."

Mr. and Mrs. Allen told their story as they were treated in the emergency room of All Saints Episcopal Hospital.

Their home was one of many buildings destroyed Wednesday night as tornadoes skipped over Texas, dropping down every now and then and tearing apart everything in their path.

Walter Heads Committee On Migration

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—The policy-making council of the Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration, a 29-nation agency seeking to stimulate emigration from overcrowded Western Europe, opened a 10-day conference here Thursday.

U.S. Rep. Francis W. Walter (D-Pa) was elected president of the conference by acclaim.

ICEM plans to resettle 112,350 persons during the current year. About a third will be refugees. Close to 30,000 of the migrants will come from Italy. Others are expected from the Netherlands, Germany, Spain, Greece and Austria.

Most of them will go to Australia, Israel, Argentina, the United States, Brazil and Venezuela.

9-10 Killed As Tornado Hits Tulsa

WILBURTON, Okla. (AP) — At least nine or 10 persons were killed Thursday night when a tornado ripped into this eastern Oklahoma college town.

Elmer Durant, chief of police at McAlester, 33 miles westward, radioed "9 or 10 are dead that we know of and there may be more."

Sgt. Jess Henson of the McAlester Police Department said "At least 50 persons have been brought into McAlester hospitals. Some of them are badly injured."

Henson said the downtown area of Wilburton, a town of 2,000 and site of Eastern Oklahoma A&M College, was hardest hit. The college apparently was untouched.

It was one of a series of twisters which lashed eastern Oklahoma Thursday night with several deaths and injuries reported by various agencies.

H. Firestone Dies In Fall

HAVANA (AP) — A man identified by Cuban police as Harvey S. Firestone III was killed outright Thursday night when he jumped or fell from the 20th floor of the Habana Hilton Hotel.

Usually reliable American colony sources said the victim was a scion of the wealthy American tire making family.

Teacher Pay Stalls Work On Budget

WORK on the budget for the East Stroudsburg Area Joint School District for 1960-61 has been delayed until such time as the budget, finance and salary committee studies a salary schedule proposed by the faculty at the Joint Committee meeting last night.

Attending the meeting were all 84 techers in the jointure, representatives of the Parent-Teacher Assns., and a number of citizens, some of whom took part in the discussion.

Next Wednesday night, the salary committees of both the Joint Board and the Pennsylvania State Education Assn. local branch will meet at 6:30 p.m. to discuss the proposed salary schedule.

Joint Meeting

This meeting will be followed at 7:30 p.m. by a combined meeting of all school boards in the district to give further consideration to the budget. David F. Stafford, director of research for the PSEA, will attend the latter meeting. The public is also invited to be present.

Horace G. Walters, representing the East Stroudsburg Borough Board, asked that a $30,350 reduction be carried out on the budget. Of this the main item was $18,000 set aside for the equalization of teachers' salaries.

Two other boards, Price and Smithfield Townships, backed up the East Stroudsburg action. Price, through its spokesman on the board, Paul Nauman, emphasized the fact that that district is presently operating under a deficit budget, and any increase will only raise the amount of deficit already maintained by the district.

Price at present, Nauman said, has a $15 total per capita tax.

Pleads For Teachers

Stressing the point of spiraling costs, and the fact that the teachers had not protested before when funds allocated for their salary increases had been cut, Supervising Principal Carl T. Secor asked that the committee seriously consider the salary schedule as presented by the entire faculty.

"The teachers," Secor said, "have more than cooperated in the past in this matter, but they can no longer hold the line as far as their salaries are concerned."

Secor said salaries for the East Stroudsburg Jointure should be commensurate with other salary schedules in this area.

Citing Stroud Union and districts in the Lehigh Valley, Secor said the present operating base of $3,600 is far lower than that paid in any other district in this area.

"The jointure at present is having a difficult time securing teachers," Secor said, and he attributed this in the main to the low minimum salary pair a teacher entering the system.

Praises Faculty

"We have a fine teaching staff," he said, "as good as any other staff in this area, and the children of this jointure are entitled to a good education."

"A new school is no reason why we cannot pay adequate salaries," he declared.

"Gentlemen, I am pleading with you to very seriously consider this salary schedule," Secor said.

Going over the potential growth of the community, Secor said he had heard it mentioned that East Stroudsburg "was dying," but this would happen only if the community let it die, he stressed.

The continuance of good schooling for area students is one way of keeping the community from dying, he reported.

Dr. Evan Reese, a member of the joint committee, protested the paying of increased salaries to teachers who hold only certificates.

"With the college in this town, there is no reason for any teacher not to hold a degree," he said.

In addition, Dr. Reese, said he personally was more in favor of merit increases rather than a new salary schedule for many of the teachers.

He was asked how this would be accomplished, and who would determine who would get the merit increase. Dr. Reese said he had nothing concrete yet on this part of the matter.

It was at this point that Ray Hartman, president of the joint committee, asked that the schedule be sent to the Finance Committee, and that work on the budget be postponed until a recommendation was forthcoming.

Patrols Step Up Hunt For Two Bank Robbers

STATE Police last night reported no new developments in the search for two men who held up the Brodheadsville branch of Monroe Security Bank and Trust Co. Wednesday and escaped with $34,285.

Patrol activity was greater than normal, despite a growing conviction that the pair is no longer in the area. Roadblocks were withdrawn.

Top State Police officials from district headquarters at Wyoming joined Federal Bureau of Investigation agents in the search for clues or witnesses who might have seen the men leave the bank.

Meanwhile, a check for the stolen funds was received by the bank from its insurance company.

Police traced scores of tips secured in a house-to-house canvass of Brodheadsville, but there was no report of progress.

Much of the confusion stemmed around the type of car driven by the holdup men.

Neither Antone Vogler, the branch bank's manager, nor Miss Ada Sommers, the only teller on duty at the time, saw a car.

Conflicting Information

Several passersby and other residents of the area furnished police with conflicting information about cars seen in the vicinity at about 11 a.m., when the holdup occurred.

One of the holdup men was described as about 50 years old, five feet, nine inches tall, dark complexioned with dirty features and in need of a shave. He was wearing a green shirt and tan hat.

The other was said to be five feet, four and a half inches tall, weighing 140 to 145 pounds. He wore dark clothing, a fedora hat and dark rimmed glasses and was believed to be of Italian descent.

A helicopter pressed into service in an effort to determine whether any cars had been abandoned on the numerous country roads in the area had no luck.

The FBI entered the case under a federal law which makes it a crime to rob any bank insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

Barrett Welfare Fund Dissolves; Apathy Blamed

MOUNTAINHOME — The Barrett Welfare Fund, at its annual meeting in the Barrett Branch of the YMCA last night, voted to dissolve. It has been in existence since 1940.

Reasons cited for dissolving the organization were general apathy in the community and the fact that the quota set by the fund has not been met in the last five years.

The vote was unanimous by representatives of five of the 20 community organizations associated with the fund. They were the only ones represented at the meeting.

Trustees of the group will meet later to dispose of the remaining money in the accounts of the fund.

The only sizeable amount is a fund for construction of a swimming pool. Most other monies had been distributed to participating agencies.

The motion to dissolve was made by Joseph Vogt, a past president and longtime supporter of the fund. It was seconded by John Vaneria.

Mrs. Michael Bridge expressed the feeling of the majority of those attending when she said: "It's a shame the people in the community are not interested in their own welfare organization."

President Walter Melnikoff conducted the business session.

Wolves Attack

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—A pack of 10 wolves made a savage attack Wednesday night on earthquake victims living in tents near the stricken city of Lar in southern Iran. Several children were among at least 27 persons bitten. In fear of rabies, the 27 were removed to Tehran for emergency treatment.

Ships Collide

MONTREAL (AP) — Three ships collided Thursday night in Montreal Harbor near Jacques Cartier Bridge. First reports said one sank.

Pilot In Trouble

Weather Plane Was Unarmed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States indicated Thursday the "bandit" U. S. military plane Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev boasted was shot down on a mission of intimidation actually was an unarmed weather study craft whose civilian pilot may have blacked out.

"It is entirely possible that having a failure in the oxygen equipment which could result in the pilot losing consciousness, the plane continued on automatic pilot for a considerable distance and accidentally violated Soviet air space," the State Department said.

No Reference To K

Its report—issued after a hurry-up inquiry ordered by President Eisenhower—suggested this possibility in mild words that avoided any reference to Khrushchev's belligerent declaration that the plane was sent by U. S. "aggressive forces."

Khrushchev told the Soviet Parliament the plane may have been ordered out by the U. S. military—perhaps without Eisenhower's knowledge—to "impress us and frighten us on the eve of the summit."

Congress members were outraged by Khrushchev's charge and the truculence he displayed.

Some like Sen. Styles Bridges (R-NH) questioned whether Eisenhower ought now to go to the summit meeting in Paris starting May 16.

Should Go Ahead

Others felt as did Sen. E. L. Bartlett (D-Alaska), who said the United States should go ahead with the summit conference "despite the crude, rude, provocative remarks of Khrushchev."

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas ventured an opinion that Khrushchev may be "simply using this as an incident to apply leverage" for the coming East-West meeting.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon—who came in for some unflattering mention by Khrushchev, declined comment. He said he wanted to study the Soviet Premier's speech.

Eisenhower learned of Khrushchev's statements after the President and other members of the National Security Council had left by helicopter for a session at an undisclosed site away from Washington. The council—the administration's top defense-foreign group made the brief trip as part of a long-scheduled civil defense drill.

Inquiry Ordered

The President said nothing publicly, but ordered the State Department and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration to make an inquiry and public reports, which they did within hours.

Although nobody in authority would say so definitely, it appeared the plane was a NASA high-altitude weather research craft—a single-engine jet U2 Lockheed—reported missing since Sunday after taking off from a field near Adana, Turkey. That was the day Khrushchev said an intruding U. S. military plane was shot down over Soviet territory.

In Burbank, Calif., the Lockheed Aircraft Corp. said test pilot Francis G. Powers, 30, was at the controls of the missing U2. Powers' wife, Barbara, was listed as a resident of Albany, Ga.

Khrushchev Dims Allied Hopes For Summit Accords

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's blast Thursday at the United States chilled official hopes here for summit accords which would improve East-West relations.

Khrushchev appeared to be trying to whip up war fears as a means of bringing pressure on President Eisenhower, French President Charles de Gaulle and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain to make concessions to him when the Big Four meet in Paris 10 days hence.

Boy's Body Recovered From Well

IRONTON, Ohio (AP) — Volunteer workers recovered the body of 18-year-old Warren Payne from the bottom of a 35-foot well Thursday night, nearly 21½ hours after he was trapped by a cave-in.

The body was found in a semi-reclining position, slightly bent backwards. It appeared Payne had tried to crawl out of the pit before being pinned down by the falling sand, dirt and rocks.

Hundreds of people crowded the scene in the backyard of the victim's home as his body was hoisted out. Minutes later, a volunteer worker slipped and tumbled into the hole. He scrambled out unhurt.

Workmen first came upon one of Payne's hands shortly before 7 p.m. Working cautiously, they dug the rest of the way by hand as the loose soil continued to spill into the well.

Two Killed

MONTOURSVILLE (AP) — Two men were killed Thursday night when a twin-engine Piper Apache they were flight testing after repairs crashed, skidded into a building and burned. They were William J. Clip Angle, 21, Williamsport, and Richard Littley, 25, of Montoursville.

Says Incident Intended To Scare Soviets

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, in a blistering pre-summit attack on the United States, announced Thursday Soviet forces shot down an American plane Sunday on Defense Ministry orders. He said Soviet rockets are ready to retaliate against future incidents.

The Soviet Premier and Communist party chief unlimbered a wide-ranging attack on the Western Allies. He criticized President Eisenhower and scoffed at Richard M. Nixon as a man hardly interested in ending the cold war.

Aggressive Act Charged

Khrushchev told Parliament—to cheers—that the presence of the American plane over Soviet territory was an "aggressive act" intended to frighten the Soviet Union in advance of the summit.

"One must conclude that aggressive forces in the United States are taking action to interfere with the summit," Khrushchev said. He contended the West's attitude "dims chances of success at the talks" starting May 16.

Khrushchev warned U.S. allies—such as Turkey, Iran and Pakistan—that nations with U.S. bases must realize they are playing with fire and can receive retaliatory blows.

Khrushchev blasted Eisenhower's suggestion that Vice President Nixon might sit in for him at the summit if the President has to return to Washington.

Attacks Nixon

Khrushchev, saying Nixon could hardly be thought of as a man interested in ending the cold war, commented: "I am afraid that if Nixon becomes entitled to carry on negotiations at the summit, it would be, as we say in Russia, like sending a goat to take care of the cabbage."

He said Eisenhower had informed him he could devote only seven days to the summit talks. This time limit "seemed to show that there are certain U.S. circles resfricting Eisenhower's freedom of movement," Khrushchev said.

He assailed the U.S. State Department's Christian A. Herter and Douglas Dillon for recent speeches "far from giving hope of favorable results a the summit." He added that "unfortunately these speeches have been approved by President Eisenhower, and thus the situation is made even gloomier."

Good Morning!

Meichner Retires

Pressman Started In 1904

CHRISTIAN Meichner, of 1157 W. Main St., Stroudsburg, closed out a 56-year career in the printing trade yesterday when he retired as a pressman in the commercial printing department of The Daily Record.

Meichner, who was 70 years old April 12, recalls when he began working for the Stroudsburg Daily Times in 1904, first as a boiler fireman and six weeks later as an apprentice.

He worked six, ten-hour days a week for five cents an hour, or $3 for the entire week. This was increased to $4 a week later in the Winter of 1905. During the interim period, Meichner worked 20 hours overtime and was paid $1.50 at the time and one-half rate of seven and a half cents an hour.

Good Wage

While this rate is insignificant when compared with today's wage and hour pattern, Meichner pointed out yesterday that it was considered good pay for a beginner a half century ago.

Born in New York City, "on the edge of the Bowery," Meichner came to Stroudsburg with his family in 1896. Although his father was a cigarmaker, Meichner was attracted to the printing trade by a brother, Julius, then working at the Hughes Printing Co.

Julius, who died seven years ago, and Clarence Shafer, of 612 Monroe St., were two of the first printers in this area to learn to operate a linotype machine. Previously, all type was hand-set.

Joined Record In 1920

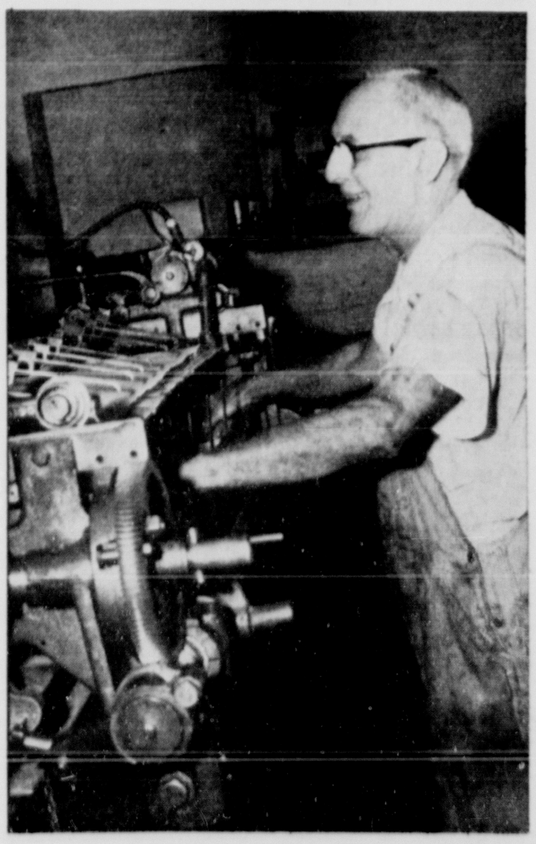

Meichner's work on the Times ranged from setting headlines to operating the job and newspaper presses. All paper was hand-fed at that time, whereas it is automatically fed by today's modern machinery.

After 16 years on the job, Meichner was earning $15 a week when he joined The Daily Record in 1920. During the past 40 years, his work has almost exclusively in the commercial department.

Last Saturday night, Meichner was presented a 20-year membership pin by the Printing Pressmen's and Assistants' Union, Local 350.

He and his wife, the former Mary E. Kautz, were married 49 years ago. Meichner is a charter member of the Pocono Male Chorus, which was founded in 1937, and has served as its president since 1939.

A member of St. John's Lutheran Church, he has been treasurer of the Sunday School for 28 years. Meichner has belonged to the Knights of Malta for 52 years and the Masonic Lodge for 49 years.

Cancer Campaign Tops Quota Again

FOR THE second year in a row, the Monroe County Cancer Drive topped its quota, it was reported yesterday by Edwin Krawitz, chairman of the drive.

The latest figures given by Krawitz last night showed the goal of $7,500 was topped by $62 with additional funds expected.

Krawitz said as to whether or not the county unit was the first in the State—as last year—to reach their quota was not known.

At the last report from Harrisburg, last Friday, he said the local group was third in the list heading for the goal.

Krawitz said he wished to express his thanks to the following persons for their work in the campaign:

Mrs. Floyd Bachman, house-to-house, assisted by Mrs. Betty Eshback; Gerald Brodsky and Stuart Pipher, trades and industrial; John H. Parker, small business; Joseph Farrugia and Dr. Sherwood Samet, special gifts; Mrs. Mary Baggott, executive secretary, and Mrs. M. J. Leitner, publicity.

Extends Thanks

Krawitz also extended his thanks to Radio Station WVPO and The Daily Record for their help in the drive, which began April 1.

Last year's goal for the drive was $7,200, which was reached by the unit as the first in the Commonwealth.

W. A. Stiff Dies In Florida

WILLIAM A. Stiff, 38, Winter Park, Fla., died unexpectedly Wednesday in Florida.

Born in East Stroudsburg, he was the son of the late Helen Bly Stiff and Oren Stiff, Harrisburg.

In addition to his father, he is survived by his wife, Virginia Stiff; two daughters, Virginia Mary and Leslie Anne, all of Kresgeville; three brothers, Donald, Le Grande, Ore.; Richard, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., and Calvin, Orlando, Fla., and two sisters, Mrs. Doris Smith, Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, and Mrs. Anne Morrison, Philadelphia.

Funeral services will be held in Florida.

Fertilizer Difference

RESEARCH at Penn State has shown that in corn planting, where you place row starter fertilizer may make the difference between a good stand and a poor stand.

Delayed plant emergence and slow early growth is often due to so-called fertilizer burning. Fertilizer should never be placed touching the seed, above the seed, or directly below the seed.

Assistant County Agent R. H. Stauffer reports agronomists in Pennsylvania, Nebraska, Michigan, and other states, have found that improper placement of fertilizer causes more injury to young seedlings than does high analysis, or large quantities in the row. They recommend that row fertilizer be placed in a band two inches below and two inches to one side of the seed kernel. This cannot be done with the conventional or old style split boot planters.

Have Equipment

Henry Wooding, extension agricultural engineer at Penn State, says nearly all major line manufacturers of corn planters now have equipment for proper placement of row fertilizer.

In most cases the attachment is a separate furrow opener sold as an "extra," or optional equipment for new planters, but may be purchased as an attachment or modification for many of the later model planters, two or three years old.

Cost of this special fertilizer attachment averages about 25 to 40 dollars for a two row planter. Wooding believes increased yields of 5 to 10 bushels per acre over the old split boot method will repay the initial cost on as little as 10 acres of corn in one year.

Construction Costs Leap Up

NEW YORK (AP)—A wave of wage hikes and the shortage of Southern pine lumber have pushed construction costs to a record high, according to Engineering News-Record.

The building trade magazine said its construction cost index stands at 820.18, up 0.8 per cent from a month ago. Its 20-city building cost index has risen to 557.66, up 0.4 per cent from last month. Both use average building costs in 1913 as 100.

Canine's Barking 'Calls' Assistance To Injured Man

By Jim Shafer

THE barking and crying of a German shepherd dog named "King" was the alarm that got help for Harold Storm, 56, of Reeders, after he was pinned by a boulder in the garage foundation he was digging in the rear of 619 Wallace St., Stroudsburg, yesterday.

"King," a neighbor's dog, was tied to the back porch and had been watching Storm as he worked. Then Storm could not be seen and the dog started barking and crying.

Mrs. Betty Kochia, owner of the dog, came outside to see why the dog was barking. She heard Storm calling for help and she went to see what happened.

Noting that she could be of no help to Storm, she called the Stroudsburg police.

Police Arrive

Chief of Police Jack Tretheway arrived at the scene of the accident and with the help of several of the neighbors attempted to raise the stone high enough for Storm to withdraw his leg.

Being unable to move the stone, and seeing the pain Storm was in, Tretheway contacted Heller's Garage to send for a wrecker to move the stone. At the same time Monroe County General Hospital was notified. They dispatched an ambulance to the scene of the accident.

With the aid of the wrecker it was onl ya matter of several minutes before Storm was removed from the trench and placed in the ambulance to be taken to the hospital.

Tretheway said, "I could see that the leg was badly broken and that medical aid was necessary."

At the hospital Storms was removed to the operating room and underwent surgery to mend the broken bone.

Bartonsville ESSC Student To Spell College At Meet

JOHN M. Frailey of Bartonsville, a senior in East Stroudsburg State College, has been selected to represent the Tau chapter of Sigma Zeta, a national honorary society for science and mathematics teachers, at the national conclave to be held at Anderson College, Anderson, Ind., today through Saturday.

John Frailey

Selection of representatives to the national conclave is made by each chapter on the basis of the relative value of research papers prepared by the members of the chapter. The author of the paper selected as best, among those of the local chapter, is sent to the national conclave to present the paper in national competition.

The paper adjudged bbest at the national conclave entitles the chapter from which it is presented to annual possession of the Founder's Cup, duly inscribed with the name of the chapter.

Tau chapter of the East Stroudsburg State College won the Founder's Cup in 1955 and again in 1958, making it the first chapter in the United States to hold the cup twice.

Frailey will present his paper entitled, "Indicators, the Chemists Friend," to the conclave today.

LOCAL 1724, International Association of Machinists, will hold a special meeting Sunday at 2 p.m. in the CLU Social Club's meeting hall.

Action will be taken at this meeting on the company's request to change the vacation date.

All members are urged to attend and aid in carrying out the important business of the local.

Foster Home Program Lauded

MONROE COUNTY Commissioners yesterday heard a report on foster home operations of the Children's Aid Society from acting head Mrs. A. Greenwald Gearhart during their meeting.

Mrs. Gearhart told the commissioners the society appreciated the recent increase in payments for foster home and protective care for children.

She said many of the foster parents had a larger sense of security from the new interest generated by the commissioners action.

Mrs. Gearhart said: "I have never felt happier than now with relations between the society and the commissioners moving smoothly."

Seven Assigned

She reported that during the February term of court, the largest group of children had been assigned for foster home care—there was a total of seven, she reported.

In other business, the commissioners said they would be represented at the meeting of the East Stroudsburg Planning Commission meeting with the State and Federal planning officials set for May 16 at 8 p.m. at the municipal building.

The discussion will center around urban renewal projects in the borough, the report showed.

Members of the county Redevelopment Commission will also attend the meeting.

County Home Held 'Efficient, Clean

THE MAY grand jury praised the superintendent and staff of the Monroe County Home for "efficient operation and cleanliness" and recommended numerous repairs to that building and others in its report.

Its recommendations included: County home — paint outside, refill fire extinguishers, repair front steps, loose railings on stairways and roof on men's wing, replace broken windows in basement, repair chimney on east wing, install call bell from home to cottage, paint farm buildings and install automatic controls on new generator being installed.

TB, Health Building

Tuberculosis and Health Society Building — Repair front steps, paint building, replace floor covering in office, supervisor's office and bathroom.

Courthouse — Repair leaks in both courtrooms.

The jury also recommended unanimously installation of an elevator at the county home. The jury said it was not asking commissioners to undertake the construction, but urged their approval if it should be adopted as a civic project.

2 Prisoners Released To Authorities

CLAUDE Mader, chief deputy sheriff of Monroe County, reported yesterday that two prisoners were released to other authorities and two men were committed to the Monroe County Jail.

Lawrence R. Getz was released to Military Police from Camp Dix to be returned to the Army base to await charges there.

James L. Kessler was returned to the Northampton County Jail to complete a sentence in that county.

Admitted

Admitted for confinement was Joseph J. Grochowski, 1207 Rundle St., Scranton, on a charge of vagrancy.

Also committed was Earl Landheer, 21, 206 N. Sixth St., Stroudsburg, charged with non-support.

Forest Fire Near LaAnna

LA ANNA — Approximately 50 to 60 acres of forest were burned over yesterday when a rubbish fire roared out of control between here and Panther.

The area where the fire occurred is behind the Pocono Plateau.

Forest Fire Unit 34 of the State Dept. of Forests and Waters extinguished the blaze. The unit covers Pike and Monroe Counties.

River Resources Hearing Held

PORT JERVIS, N. Y. (AP) — Willard C. Clifton, a Hancock supervisor, raised the only specific objection yesterday at a hearing on proposals to develop Delaware River basin water resources.

Mrs. E. Williams Dies In Lansdale

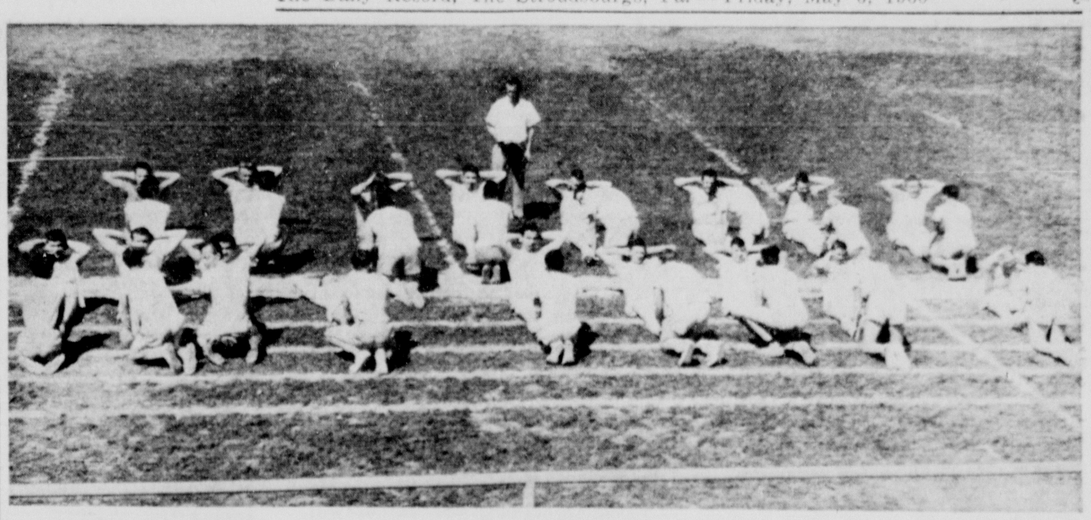

BLAKESLEE — Mrs. J. M. Stark received word of the death of her sister, Mrs. Edgar Williams, of Lansdale. Mrs. Williams, with her husband, were summer guests of Mrs. Stark for a number of years.

Mrs. Williams was a graduate of Wyoming Seminary and Mount Holyoke College and prior to her marriage was a teacher in the Edwardsville High School.

She is survived by her husband, a son Edgar Jr., whose articles appear in the Today Section of the Philadelphia Inquirer; Richard at home and a daughter Mrs. Clayton Bishop of Eustis, Fla. and six grandchildren. Also by two sisters, Mrs. Stark and Mrs. John Thomas, of Kingston.

Hung Jury

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)— The labor bribery trial of Robert Dougherty, Wyoming, Pa., anthracite mine owner, ended last night in a hung jury.

TAKE MARINE TEST—Boys' gymnasium classes at East Stroudsburg Area Joint High School are shown taking part of the U. S. Marine Corps physical fitness test. The group is shown performing sit-ups. Remainder of test includes push-ups, pull-ups, squat jumps and a 300-yard dash. Program was under direction of Jack Kist, physical education instructor.

E-Burg Board Will Study Teachers Salary Schedule

THE SALARY schedule proposed by the faculty of the East Stroudsburg Area Joint Schools would raise the minimum starting salary from $3,600 to $4,200 per year.

The $3,600 figure is presently the State's mandated figure for starting salaries.

The starting figure, for first-year, non-degree and bachelor's degrees, is $4,200 with a $200 increment to a maximum of $5,400 for certificates and $6,800 for bachelor's degrees, up to 14 years.

Start At $4,400

For a bachelor's degree, plus 18 hours of graduate work, the starting salary would be $4,400 for the first year with $200 increments to a maximum of $7,000 up to 14 years.

The master's degree would provide $4,600 for a starting salary, with $200 increments up to a maximum of $7,200 after 14 years.

It was noted that some teachers might wait as much as five years before they would attain their appropriate level in the schedule.

Estimated cost per year would be $19,700 added to the $33-34,000 now added each year for the regular state-mandated increments.

Stroud Union Concert Set For Tonight

TONIGHT at 8 p.m. the Stroud Union High School Band will present its Spring concert in the high school gym.

John Pyle, head of Instrumental music in the Stroud Union schools, will lead his organization in a program of marches, transcriptions of orchestral music, original compositions for band, and novelties.

Robert Kranendonk, baritone soloist, and formerly of the Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians, is the guest artist.

To Make Award

Robert Haigh as president of the Music Parents Assn. will make the Arion Award presentation, to the outstanding senior band member.

Several students from the group will be featured in various numbers.

Whatever the type of tribute you desire, we can provide a suitable Memorial of your selection.

Ike's Program

President Eisenhower took the unusual step of delivering a special message calling upon Congress to cast aside election year politics and concentrate instead on passing the Administration's legislative program.

Visibly perturbed by the brush-off given his proposals, the President appealed for speedy action on his program relating to farm problems, help for the aged in paying their medical bills, minimum wages and debt management.

Mr. Eisenhower furthermore warned the Democrats to exercise restraint on new spending proposals, indicating he intends to use his veto authority freely if they don't.

In session four months, Congress has barely touched the President's legislative program, and his message was an effort to get action before the competing claims of the party convention bring adjournment in July.

Traditionally a slow starter, Congress had even less to show in legislative accomplishment at mid-session than in previous years of the Eisenhower administration.

The chief excuse, of course, is the eight weeks the Senate spent in "debating" the civil rights bill. This, in fact, is the only measure on the President's program that has passed in 1960.

In a sense, Mr. Eisenhower himself is playing politics by demanding action on his program, for if the Democrats continue to ignore his recommendations, the voters will be told that this was a "do-nothing" Congress, a theme Harry Truman found effective in 1948.

On the other hand, the President's desire to have his final budgets demonstrate a measure of fiscal responsibility is smart politics not only on his part but for all lawmakers, regardless of party, who wish to join Mr. Eisenhower in restoring fiscal sanity in this country.

It's Time To Go Up In Smoke

Among the scientific strides which we shall not applaud is the development by the Atomic Energy Commission of a tobacco which grows on a tomato plant and contains no nicotine.

Cancer or no, we have gone about far enough toward making tobacco taste like anything but tobacco. If the day arrives when filters remove 98 per cent of the tobacco taste from cigarets, it's time to quit.

Tobacco, let's face it, was never intended as a health food. It contains a drug, nicotine, which makes a good smoke relaxing, and which makes the smoking habit, like any drug habit, hard to break.

Take away the nicotine and the strong tobacco flavor and the result is not tobacco. Of course, you might well be better off without tobacco.

Life without smoking would undoubtedly be more healthful, less expensive and far simpler. So would life without whisky, women, or rich desserts. And who'd want it?

The Pennsylvania Story

Governor On Vacation

By Mason Denison

Harrisburg — The plush leather chair in room 225 of the Main Capitol Building is vacant this week — as it is destined to be for the next three weeks. . . The chair in question is the one ordinarily occupied by His Excellency, the Governor of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Lawrence is on vacation —London, Paris, Venice, Israel and side points — and is not destined to return to his chair in room 225 until June 1. . . A few interesting sidenotes:

(1) Mr. Lawrence did not take his golf clubs. . . (2) This is his seventh trip to Europe. . . (3) Notwithstanding his 70 years he enplaned from New York Monday — by jet . . . (4) This is his first vacation since assuming the robes of office in January, 1959.

(5) It will be his third trip to Israel (on May 15 he will meet a planeload of 45 Pittsburgers there). . . (6) How much of an "entourage" will be with the Governor: Mrs. Lawrence. . . (7) Asked at his last press conference if he would be traveling by commercial airline, gray-thatched David Leo Lawrence quipped in answer: "Yes. I don't have a 'columbine'." (The "columbine" of course referring to the plane placed at the disposal of the President.)

Remember When? — When the Pennsylvania Federation of Democratic Women gather in Pittsburgh May 16-18 for their annual convention, it should be one of those "remember when?" affairs. . . Reason: it wasn't too many years ago, as the political crows fly, that Pennsylvania Democratic women — and men — had a somewhat frightful time trying to round up what could be considered a "respectable crowd" for their conventions.

Additionally, insofar as obtaining notables within their own Democratic ranks for such affairs was concerned, it was almost an impossibility. . . That of course was in the days when Pennsylvania Democrats were languishing on the vine—on the outside looking in.

The upcoming annual convention of members of the distaff side of Democratic Party affairs represents the tremendous transition that has taken place within the space of the past few years. . . The crowd in Pittsburgh week after next is expected to be tremendous.

As for notables within their own right within the Democratic Party, a look at some of those scheduled to take part in the program illustrates the point: Secretary of Property and Supplies Andrew M. Bradley, Speaker of the House of Representatives Hiram G. Andrews, Lt. Gov. John Morgan Davis, Secretary of the Commonwealth John S. Rice, one of Pennsylvania's two U. S. Senators, Joseph S. Clark, Secretary of Internal Affairs Genevieve Blatt — and if Pennsylvania's Democratic Governor David L. Lawrence were here, he'd be on hand too!. . . Remember when — when Pennsylvania Democrats were gasping, and had virtually no such public officeholders?

"Fishy" Department — The Pennsylvania Department of Health has gone into the business of coddling fish . . . Believe it or not, special tanks have been installed in the department to handle sunfish and trout — all of this of course not without theoretical good reason!

The department in announcing its entry in the fishy business department this week asserts that the sunfish and trout are used as "guinea pigs" in the detective work of tracking down water pollution culprits.

As water samples are sent in to the laboratory from throughout the state, the fish are dunked into the sample and "the time required to stun the fish and the manner in which they react" serve as indicators to specialists, of the type and concentration of toxic pollutants.

(Wait 'till the SPCA gets wind of this!)

Veteran's Guide

Q.—This fall I plan to take a pre-med course under the Korean GI Bill. I've been working in a drug store and my boss wants me to go on working for him, part time. Would the part-time earnings affect my GI school allowance any way?

A—No. You may earn any amount at all in your spare time, without having your school allowance reduced. Veterans at school don't even have to report outside earnings to VA.

Q—I am 21 years old, eligible for training under the War Orphans Education Act, but I never finished high school. Would that keep me from taking courses under the War Orphans program?

A — No. Graduation from high school is not a requirement for War Orphans Education Act training. A young man or woman who quits high school may be eligible under the program.

Q—What kind of papers or other credentials do I need to take with me when I go to a lender to apply for a GI loan?

A—You will need only the Certificate of Eligibilty which shows you are entitled to apply for a loan. The Certificate of Eligibilty may be obtained from any VA regional office.

Q—My World War II GI term insurance is getting pretty expensive for me and I'd like to convert to a permanent plan but do not feel I can afford to convert all at once. Could I convert, say, $2000—worth now, and the rest later?

A—Yes. As long as you convert at least $1,000-worth, and your additional amounts are in multples of $500, partial conversion of your GI term insurance is all right with VA.

George Sokolsky Says . . .

Truman's Choices

Bernard College is the female part of Columbia University, a distinguished institution of learning. When I went to this university, the boys wore collars, neckties and jackets which, on the whole, gave the appearance of tidiness and even cultural gentility.

The girls, of course, wore skirts which were then regarded as essential to a ladylike appearance. If a girl appeared on the campus in those abbreviated undergarments which now seem so stylish, she would have been arrested by the municipal police.

Well, as the saying goes, times have changed and as girl seeks boy, she dresses sexily. It could, of course, be said that a clean and virginal mind could gaze upon the nude without an ignoble thought.

Perhaps that is possible if the body is of amazing beauty, but let it be said in Gath as well as anywhere else, that unfortunately few women, no matter at what age, can be uncovered without losing in estheic value.

The good Lord has not been so kind in His depository of curves, clumps of fat and similar inequities, to make beauty available together unassisted by the artifices that women have learned to use from time immemorial.

Therefore, a mass of half-nude teen-agers is a sight to behold. Their legs are too fat, too unformed. Too many young girls, in these days of sweetened beverages and high calorie foods, too early resemble Ruben's model for their own good.

When President Millicent McIntosh of Barnard, at the suggestion of President Grayson Kirk of Columbia University, told the girls to put on more clothes, she did it, I think for the wrong reasons. She should have said to the girls who wear pants and Bermuda and other kinds of shorts:

"You look like hell! Go and dress up!"

It appears that some of the girls protested. They said that they could wear what they pleased and that it was none of the business of the university. I went through all that 40-odd years ago and have long since discovered that it is ordinary good manners, if you enter a person's house, to be dressed as your hostess desires.

Otherwise, stay home. I have taken my shoes off in Japan; put them on in China; worn a white tie and a black tie; a boiled shirt and striped trousers, not because I wanted to wear such clothes, but I recognized the universal principle of good manners that the host decides the clothes.

Kids who believe that they gain something of independence by such externals are at best ill-mannered. I do not believe that Walter Lippmann will recall this episode which occurred about 44 years ago.

Some of us, in this same university, published a magazine called "Challenge" with which we were going to remake the world. We went down to the "New Republic" to see Walter Lippmann who was already a great man.

He looked at our paper and talked about its make-up. I do not recall his exact words but I know what he said left a permanent impression on me. And I should like to paraphrase that impression:

"Great and new ideas need not be clothed in a trashy, cheap dress. You kids have something to say but you have not put your thoughts into a dress that others will look at."

We went away very disappointed. I am sure that most of use thought that, at least, Lippmann would pat us on our already enlarged heads and tell us how wonderful we were. He did not talk about content.

Nevertheless, it was after that that it came to me that the way to attract attention was not by undressing in public or standing on one's head. It could be done by hard and earnest work.

There is an old Yiddish story which these Barnard girls might learn. There was once a young man who ate a cake of yellow soap on the steps of the synagogue on the Day of Atonement when everybody else fasted.

He foamed at the mouth. His face was covered with soapsuds. The yellow soap was bitter and it stank.

He was asked why he did such a stupid thing, on the steps of the synagogue, on the Day of Atonement, when everybody else fasted. His reply was simple and to the point:

"How else would anyone know that I'm a Revolutionist?"

Congressional Quiz

Agriculture

By Congressional Quarterly

The "farm issue" is always an important part of the Presidential campaigns. Try for four correct answers in this quiz on U.S. agriculture.

1. Q.—Which one of the following is not regarded as one of the six "basic" commodities: (a) corn; (b) wheat; (c) sorghum?

A—(c). The six basic crops which dominate agriculture are corn, cotton, peanuts, rice, tobacco and wheat.

2. Q. — The leading cash crop of the United States is (a) cotton; (b) wheat; (c) tobacco?

A — (a). The U.S. is the world's leading producer, consumer and exporter of raw cotton, which has a farm value averaging $2.5 billion over the past five years.

3. Q — Match three of the following Secretaries of Agriculture with the President under whom they served:

(1) Ezra Taft Benson; (2) Charles F. Brannan; (3) Henry A. Wallace; and (4) Clinton P. Anderson.

(a) Woodrow Wilson; (b) Dwight D. Eisenhower; (c) Harry S. Truman; and (d) Franklin D. Roosevelt.

A—False. Formed by the Brannan and Anderson, Truman; Wallace, Roosevelt.

4. Q — True or false. All non-profit schools are reimbursed by the Government for the milk they serve?

A—True. Commodity Credit Corporation funds benefit nonprofit schools up through high school, settlement houses, summer camps and other children's institutions. Congress recently authorized $85 million for the school milk program in fiscal 1960, and $95 million in fiscal 1961.

5. Q — Taxpayers pay $1.5 million a day to sustain the current oversupply of which basic crop?

A—Wheat. The Senate Agriculture and Forestry Committee recently approved a bill to reduce wheat acreage and increase price support levels. Agriculture Secretary Benson, on the other hand suggests eliminating acreage allotments and marketing quotas and providing for lowered price supports.

6. Q—True or false: "Soil bank districts" are found only in the Middlewest?

A—FFalse. Formed by the Soil Conservation Service, these model districts were set up to encourage the use of soil-conserving methods on farm lands. By 1960, all 50 states, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands had soil bank districts.

7. Q — About (a) one-twentieth; (b) one-twelfth; (c) one-sixth of U.S. farm workers are domestic migrants?

A—(a). The 1954 Agricultural Census showed that of 9.6 million persons working on farms, about 500,000 were domestic migrant workers.

Off The Record

By Robert Clark, City Editor

Mother's Day poems seem to come out at this time of year and appropriately so. One of the better ones we viewed came from the hands of Mrs. Ruth Coco.

Following is the poem:

"MOTHER OF MINE"

Sixty eight years ago
God was devine.
He gave to the world
This-Mother of mine.

In your old fashioned years
You knew so many toils.
But in your easy way
They seemed more like joys.

But the years, they kept going
Such good times you had.
Then you married a fellow
Our wonderful Dad.

God gave you six children
You were thrilled with great joy.
What could be nicer
Three girls and three boys.

The years they kept going
Then God placed a hand.
He called two of your children
Into "HIS" promised land.

There were no doubts in our hearts
Of your suffering and sorrows.
But "God" left you four others
To fill your tomorrows.

Your days, some are happy
Others are sad.
But at this time, Mother
Thank God for all you have had.

When worry and heartaches
Seem more than you can bear.
Get on your knees
Give God a prayer.

As I said before
God is devine.
He will hear your prayers
Dear-"MOTHER OF MINE."

Interpreting The News

Chessman Prolonged Own Anguish

By J. M. Roberts
Associated Press News Analyst

FOREIGN criticism of the Caryl Chessman execution represents a strange manifestation of mass psychology.

Many criminal cases have attracted world attention and produced widespread demonstrations. But nearly always this has been due to political overtones or a strong presumption of innocence.

This, however, is a case in which a man committed crimes against women which are universally condemned, and the criticism is directed primarily against the long delay rather than on doubt of guilt.

The demand, far more pronounced abbroad than in the United States, has been for a reprieve on humane rather than on legal grounds. Newspapers and demonstrators abroad have taken the line that if you are going to execute a man you shouldn't take 12 years to do it.

And yet here is a man who has been given every consideration under law. He was not executed until he himself admitted that every avenue to life had been explored. He said he could prove his innocense by producing the guilty, but he never did it. He died saying that he would not involve others.

He had money, a series of lawyers, and above all he was given time. It was he, not society, who prolonged the anguish.

Judges of great legal ability and great humanity, from the highest to the lowest, heard his pleas over the years and regularly turned him down.

Yet a newspaper in Belgium, where there is a highly organized government of laws, criticizes the American legal system for permitting "moral martyrdom" for 12 years.

Only a very few foreign commentators noted the extreme care for Chessman's rights.

Hardly any of the foreign commentators seem able to differentiate between an execution under law and the old argument of whether that law is a good one. What they wanted was for the judges and the governor of California to ignore the law.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown never liked capital punishment. He even tried to get it repealed while the Chessman case was pending.

But the United States has arranged it so the will of individual men shall not prevail above the law. If governors and judges could say with impunity, "This is a bad law and I will not permit its enforcement," then the whole structure of the nation would be threatened.

The Allen-Scott Report

Barnard Fuss

By Robert S. Allen and Paul Scott

Washington — Sen. Lyndon Johnson is now definitely former President Truman's second choice for the Democratic presidential nomination.

This significant political development was disclosed by Truman during his Washington visit to address the Democratic congressional fund-raising dinner. In talks with former members of his White House staff and other intimates, he made the following clear:

(1) His first choice continues to be Sen. Stuart Symington. There is no change on that.

(2) But should the Missourian fall by the wayside, either before or at the Los Angeles convention, Truman will strongly favor the nomination of Senator Johnson.

(3) That is also the attitude of former National Chairman Frank McKinney, former Secretary of State Dean Acheson, Clark Clifford, special White House counsel to Truman, and other leading Symington supporters.

(4) A third nomination for Adlai Stevenson will be strenuously opposed by Truman and his group. The former President has become sharply critical of the 1952-56 standard-bearer, and will reveal that publicly before the convention.

(5) Similarly, Truman is against Senator Kennedy. He doesn't disapprove of him on the personal basis he now does Stevenson. Much of Truman's opposition to Kennedy centers on the latter's father, the former Ambassador to Britain.

Despite the strong urging of Symington managers, Truman finally decided against declaring for him before this week's meeting of the Missouri Democratic convention, that selected the conventiondelegation.

Instead, Truman determined to withhold his announce- "until several weeks before the (July 11) convention."

A major factor in this backstage decision was Truman's now-active preference for Senator Johnson in the even Symington fails to secure impressive support for his candidacy.

However, Truman did agree to address a big fund-raising dinner for Symington in Kansas City later this month.

LBJ Profile — Many people in the Middle West think of Senator Lyndon Johnson as a "politician's politician."

That's one of the intriguing findings of a study made by a well-known pollster at the behest of the Senate Democratic Campaign Committee, headed by Senator George Smathers, Fla. Titled "The Johnson Image," this backstage report stresses the following regarding the dynamic Texan.

"As a man, Senator Johnson is deemed an outspoken leader, aggressive, firm and a square shooter. . . It is highly significant that the most important attribute with which he is generally credited is that he is a 'born leader'. . . He is also widely thought of as a politician's politician; that is a political leader who is known and admired for his cool and effective skill in coping with problems, issues and individuals."

Johnson has agreed to address two fund-raising dinners for California Democrats before the Los Angeles convention.

* * *

Politicals — At the urging of Democratic Treasurer Matthew McCloskey, Philadelphia, former President Truman has joined the drive to pay off the several hundred thousand dollars still remaining from the 1956 campaign. Thousands of copies of a letter with Truman's printed signature have been sent out to party leaders throughout the country asking for contributions to put the National Committee in the black — for the first time in years. McCloskey won Truman's support for this effort by stressing that National Chairman Paul Butler, whom they both dislike, will be replaced after the Los Angeles convention. . . Since Senators Humphrey and Kennedy have been exchanging sharp comments in the West Virginia primary, visitors to the latter's office are being shown a photograph of Humphrey inscribed, "To John F. Kennedy, a man of courage, brilliance and dedicated to the public service, with admiration and friendship Hubert Humphrey."

New Mexico's veteran Senator Dennis Chavez, D., pulled no punches in telling off a county chairman who incurred his wrath. Wrote Chavez to Apolonio Duran, Democratic County Chairman, Las Vegas, N.M., "I have always been your partisan, and believe I have shown that. Your boy is still working on my patronage here in the Capitol. He is a good boy, and I'm not apologizing for that. However, I have received word that you would not let Carlos Trujillo place some of his literature in a free primary within your headquarters. I don't like that. I'm not asking you to be for anyone, but primaries should be free irrespective of personal feeling. We are not going to win elections that way, and we might as well make up our minds that the Spanish or Mexican way of doing things is over in New Mexico, irrespective of their virtues. We are in the United States and let's keep it that way."

On Broadway —by Walter Winchell

Show Business Communiques

Lucille Ball and "The Untouchables" narrator were on the Beverly Hills - Las Vegas phone Monday . . . "What's the matter?" we inquired. "You got a cold? You sound down and glum."

"I've got the blues," said the popular and rich TV star.

"Why? One of the kids ill?"

"No," she sighed deeply. "I must appear in Santa Monica divorce court."

"Then if it makes you so miserable, why are you going through with it?" Don't do it! Just don't show up!"

"But I must show up—and it is tragic."

It's a Sin and a Crime against the American public that made Lucy and Desi the great Cinderella story of show business for them to break The Silver Slipper.

Fortune magazine reported: "Taking the Broadway theater as a whole, we may say that for every $2 invested in shows, $1 comes back. At Belmont Park out of every $2 invested, $1.79 comes back—a lot faster, too."

Although the theater is a gamble, the value of art cannot be determined solely by monetary yardsticks. Shakespeare's immortality has not been derived from gold, but from the most priceless treasure: Creative genius.

Critic Brooks Atkinson wrote: "If there could be such a thing as a satisfactory critic, he would be the one who never says anything that everyone does not agree with—professional theater people as well as theater-goers. But this is a manifest absurdity. There has never been a production so bad that someone did not cherish it to his bosom, or so glamorous that somebody did not despise it."

In brief, everybody is a critic—and nobody likes criticism.

Doris Day confessed. "I love trees. Does that sound strange?"

It's perfectly normal. Just ask a tree psychiatrist.

Clare Boothe Luce argued: "A large unmeasurable percentage of the total editorial space in American newspapers is concerned not with public affairs of stately importance. It is devoted instead to entertainment, titillation, amusement, peeping-tomism and tripe. We are witnessing in America the debasement of the popular taste."

The eruption of the foregoing intellectua' snobbery is more furious than factual. Nourishing the mind is, of course, an essential function of the press. Happily, human beings are not merely brain machines. They have emotions — good and bad. Humor, beauty, romance, crime and sin are major factors in the biography of humanity which newspapers reflect. There are times, dear lady, when mere titillation can be more satisfying to the spirit than a statesman's oratory. A world barren of entertainment would be bleak, cold—and very dead.

David Susskind, the tv producer, stated: "A few quality shows on television are a tiny infrequent oasis in a vast desert of drivel."

It is the rarity which gives gems their value.

Tenn. Wms. told an interviewer: "It's quite true that I want to reach a mass audience. I feel it can dig what I have to say, perhaps better than a lot of intellectuals can. I'm not an intellectual."

There is a difference between intellectuals and intelligence. By and large, the trouble with self-appointed intellectuals is that they wind up talking to each other. As a rule, intellectuals are convinced the masses are unable to understand them, when the truth is that the masses are bored with them.

Dr. Frank Stanton, the CBS president, declared: "Newspapers and broadcasting should join forces in fighting for freedom of access to information that is absolutely essential for the American people to have if this democracy is to survive.

The various media of communication are competitors — but they are also allies. Their alliance is derived from common support for the basic liberties. The Bill of Rights is the heart of our freedom. Newspapers, magazines, radio and television are the blood. One cannot exists without the other.

Progress Report On New School

BRODHEADSVILLE — A progress report on the Pleasant Valley Joint Junior-Senior High School presently abuilding at Brodheadsville, revealed the following:

The general costractor reported the first coat of paint is about half completed, and sections A and B are finished and ready for erection of the steel deck.

The roofing contractor reports the deck will be installed immediately, and the insulation and built up roof will then be applied.

The brick work is about one-quarter completed, and the bricklayers are now installing exterior walk in the classroom kitchen, mechanical room and shop areas.

Underground Lines

The electrical contractor reports underground lines are completed in the classroom and court areas.

The plumbing contractor reports underground lines are complete in the court and sections A and B.

The heating contractor reports work has been laid out for the installation of the boiler packs, footings and the boilers will be moved to the site as soon as possible.

NO DEPOSIT—Rena Baumgartner, Kunkletown, found the Brodheadsville branch of Monroe Security Bank and Trust Co. closed when she attempted to make a deposit Wednesday. This was after holdup in which two men took $34,238.75. Bank reopened yesterday. (Staff Photo by MacLeod)

Heavy Sale Of Kangaroo Meat Charged

HARRISBURG (AP) — Thousands of pounds of kangaroo meat have been sold for human consumption in Pennsylvania, the Justice and Agriculture departments reported yesterday.

In a joint statement Agriculture Secretary William L. Henning and Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern said a state investigation . . . conclusively established that thousands of pounds of the (kangaroo) meat eventually found their way into the hands of sausage manufacturers and into the stomachs of unsuspecting citizens in Pennsylvania and elsewhere."

Henning and Miss Alpern said action has been taken against three Pittsburgh firms doing business under the name of Illinois Bee fund Provision Co.

One of the firms, the Pork Processing Co. and the Gurrentz Co. were not licensed by the state and were operating illegally. They were ordered to stop selling meat.

Henning also issued a show cause citation against the Royalist Provision Co., of Philadelphia, requiring that firm to justify its operations in Pennsylvania.

Soviet Shakeup Is Disclosed

LONDON (AP) — Radio Moscow last night announced a widespread Soviet government shakeup. It dropped Frol Kozlov as a first deputy premier and removed Alexei I. Kirichenko from the Soviet Communist party presium.

Another charge released Ekaterina Furstseva, top woman in the Communist hierarchy, from her duties as a Central Committee secretary because, said Moscow, of her appointment as minister of culture of the Soviet Union.

Also dropped from the party Presidium was Nikolai Belyaev, who most recently has been running the city Communist organization of Stavropol.

MORA Club Observes 4th Year At Founder's Program

THE fourth anniversary of MORA Club was observed at a Founder's Day program Wednesday at the YMCA.

James S. Bunnell, club president, reviewed the accomplishments of the organization during the past year.

Other speakers included John R. Wilson, general secretary of the YMCA, and Walter H. Sebring, president of the local Rotary Club.

Blood Donors

Dr. R. A. Barnard called the roll of charter members and the list of members who died during the past year.

Rev. Luther E. Markin appealed to members to contact potential donors for future blood drives and Ashton L. Burrows announced future plans for the organization.

The birthdays of Eugene Lake and John Teisher were observed. Robert Hummell of Philadelphia was introduced by Al Sommer, club secretary.

Members of the Leisure Hour Club joined the MORA group for luncheon following the program.

Walter In Charge Of Migration

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) is presiding at the semi-annual meeting of the Intergovernmental Committee on European Migration at Naples, Italy.

Walter, instrumental in founding the 29-nation organization in 1951, is being accompanied by Rep. Frank Chelf (D-Ky.), a delegate to the meeting; Walter's secretary, Ruth Miskell, and James Clime and Walter Besterman, staff members for the House Immigration Subcommittee, which Walter heads.

The group will participate in the organization's observance of having helped more than one million Europeans to resettle in other parts of the world.

Before leaving, Walter said his chief aim was to have the committee concentrate its efforts on getting the emigrants to settle in countries where an increased labor force is needed, such as Argentina and Brazil.

The largest numbers of persons leaving the old world came from Italy, West Germany, Austria, Netherlands, Greece and Spain. They have settled chiefly in Australia, the United States, Canada, Argentina and Brazil.

Goodyear Co. Notes Earnings

THE GOODYEAR Tire and Rubber Company report their earnings are slightly higher than the same period last year.

The estimated net income was $17,025,567 or 51 cents a share on 33,178,681 shares outstanding.

This compares with $16,996,790 or 51 cents a share for the same period in 1959.

Movie Censor Board Ready

HARRISBURG (AP)—The new movie censorship board will be ready to operate soon, its chairman said Thursday, but will have to wait on a court decision on the censorship law.

Chairman Peter T. Dana said the three-member board will meet "within the next two weeks" to adopt rules of procedure. It also is in the process of leasing space at the State Office Building in Pittsburgh.

Meanwhile, William H. Mendlow, a Pittsburgh attorney, has been elected executive director at an annual salary of $7,400.

The court case, challenging the constitutionality of the law, is pending in Dauphin County Court.

Judge Walter T. Sohn said he hoped to have a decision by the end of May, depending upon the press of other court business.

Simulated Pony Express Runs Through Stroudsburg

A SIMULATED Pony Express run will be coming through Stroudsburg on May 10. The run will be similar to the ones in the days of the old West.

The riders will enter Stroudsburg by way of the Seventh St. bridge about 4:30 p.m. and proceed directly to the Post Office where Postmaster Fred Rhodes will greet them. Chief Burgess Edward A. Doran will also meet the riders.

From the Post Office, Pony Express riders will go to the A & P store on Main Street to stock up on provisions, then head for their night campsite at Howard Lininger's Hill-Meadows Stables on Route 209.

All purchases will be paid for in silver dollars.

The next morning, the cowboys will pass through the town of Stroudsburg and proceed on toward their next night's campsite in Bushkill.

From Tucson

The cowboys taking part in the run are Chuck McCloud and Hank Ryan. They are coming in from Tucson, Ariz., to do the run, and when the run is completed, they will stay on at Wild West City, at Neteong, N.J., who is sponsoring the run.

The run is expected to take about eight days. It will originate in Phillipsburg, N.J. From there, the riders will make their first night's camp at Nazareth, Pa. Then, Bangor, Stroudsburg, Bushkill, Dingman's Ferry, Milford, Pa., Newton, N.J., and terminate at Wild West City.

At each night's camp, the riders will have their mail cancelled and also meet the children of the town, at which time they will pass out free passes to Wild West City.

'Avoirdupois Anonyomous' Formed

"AVOIRDUPOIS Anonymous" was formed by the members of the Mt. Pocono Rotary Club at their last meeting.

The club was divided into two teams known as "Bentley's Butter Balls" and "Crandall's Crepe Suzettes."

Members of both teams have been weighed and their weights recorded.

The same process will take place at the meeting in June and the team that has lost the most poundage will be declared the winner.

Until the campaign is over there will be no meals served at the meeting.

Musicians Hear About Tax Cut

BANGOR—A reduction in the federal cabaret tax from 20 per cent to 10 per cent, effective May 1, was noted at the meeting of Bangor - Stroudsburg Local 577, American Federation of Musicians, in the union's hall.

Announcement of the tax change was received from Herman Kenin, national president.

Nelo Maso, Joseph P. Falcone and Sammy Canova were named delegates to the annual Penn-Del-Mar conference at Norristown May 14-15. Removal of the Locust Grove House, East Stroudsburg RD 1, from the national unfair list was reported.

A donation to the Association for the Blind was approved. Thank-you notes were acknowledged from the Smithfield PTA, for Hamilton Elementary School PTA and the Plainfield Township PTA for music provided by the recording and transcription fund through the Local's cooperation.

Sabatino Reports

Fred Sabatino, of the recording and transcription fund, stated that Walter Lane's orchestra will play at the Pocono Township School May 16. On May 29, the Local's concert band will perform at Weona Park, Pen Argyl.

It was decided to suspend regular meetings during June, July, August and September. However, the board will convene on the second Tuesday of each of these months.

Carl Rice, president, presided. Canova, secretary-treasurer, and Maso, business agent, presented statements.

Modernization of the front of the home was discussed at the meeting of the home association following. Falcone, president, was in charge. Maso, secretary-treasurer, reported.

Dear Abby

Gone But Not Forgotten

Dear Abby: My husband picked our eleventh anniversary to tell me he wanted a divorce. He said he was in love with another woman. I asked him to think of our two children (3 and 5) and he said they were young enough to forget him, and besides, HE grew up without a father and so could they.

He left his clothes, golf clubs, camera and everything he owns behind. All he took were the clothes on his back. He just deserted me. I have no idea who the woman is.

He's been gone twelve days. I had one postcard from him from a motel near Pontiac, Michigan. I think he's lost his mind. I don't want to report it to the police because I don't want a lot of publicity. (I still have my pride.) How can I get him home quietly?

DESERTED

Dear Deserted: Your husband has legal responsibilities to you and the children even if he cares nothing about the moral ones. He can be located and brought home quietly "without a lot of publicity." Your best friend at this time is your lawyer. From what you say, your husband could be emotionally disturbed so don't jump to any conclusions.

* * *

Dear Abby: My husband's brother begged us to sign a loan so he could have a large wedding reception. We signed, then we didn't even get invited to the wedding. Their excuse was that it was going to be a fancy church deal and they hated to put us to the expense of renting or buying the get-ups. (They suggested we put the money into a wedding gift instead. Have You Ever Heard Of Such Nerve?)

My husband says he doesn't need an invitation to go to his own brother's wedding and we are going! I say he will have to drag me by the hair to get me there. Who is right?

NOT GOOD ENOUGH

Dear Not: I think you are right, but please don't insist on that kind of entrance. Tell your husband that everyone who is wanted is invited to a wedding, including brothers. These people appear to be so rude and inconsiderate. I can't imagine why you would want to bother with them.

* * *

Dear Abby: Our minister likes my coffee cake. When he's in the neighborhood he drops in and I serve him some with tea. When I see him coming, I rush around pulling all the pin-up girls off the walls.

We have two sons (both in college) who are old enough to have pin-ups and they have decorated the place with them. I would be embarrassed to have the preacher look at them and me at the same time.

My husband says it is our home and if that's the way we live, it's dishonest to hide it. I say it is not dishonest to remove the pictures when the minister comes. Who is right?

MRS. F.J.M.

Dear Mrs. F.J.M.: There is nothing "dishonest" about making the place a little more presentable for the minister. Hold a family powwow and suggest that the boys keep their pin-ups in their own rooms.

* * *

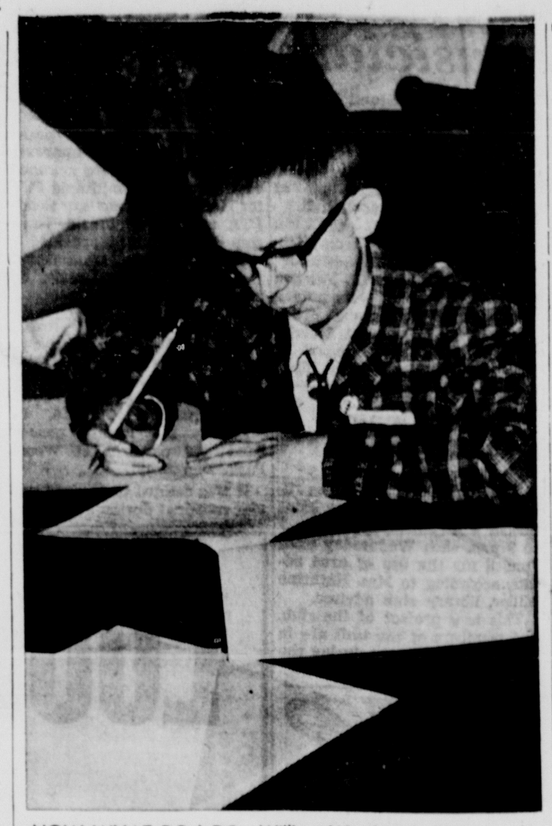

Confidential To "Looking For Money": You're wrong. Money buys everything but love, personality, health, freedom and integrity. What else is really important?

* * *

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

* * *

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Teen-agers Want To Know," send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope in care of this paper.

Heart Patients May Get Help In Medical Costs

FOR certain medical costs that overwhelm the average family, the State government may help to cushion the blow by paying a large part of the bill. For example for diagnosis and surgical treatment of many heart conditions can run high. However, there are two state services — the State Crippled Children's Program and the State Vocational Rehabilitation Program — which, partly with federal funds, are assisting some heart patients to obtain the care they need.

Although these agencies have been giving such assistance for several decades, many people in need of care are not aware of their services, or else do not know how to apply for them. In this state, the Monroe County Heart Committee puts heart patients in touch with the agencies which may give them financial aid, as well as with a number of other agencies — depending on individual needs — offering visiting nurses, clinic, and other community services.

Differs In States

The State Crippled Children's Program, serving patients under 21, differs in each state, and the services provided vary. But in general the purpose of this program is to see that children, disabled by various cardiac conditions or other crippling handicaps, receive the treatment or surgery necessary to enable them to lead as normal a life as possibble. Part of the funds for this program are supplied by the U. S. Children's Bureau in Washington.

Patients of working age are the concern of the State Division of Vocational Rehabilitation. This division also helps heart patients, as well as others whose earning ability is impaired by a physical handicap, to obtain the medical or surgical treatment they need to get back on the job again. Part of the funds for this program come to the office of Vocational Rehabilitation of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Through the help of these agencies, many are able to benefit by the remarkable medical-surgical techniques that have been developed in recent years to restore the defective heart to normal good health. The total costs of these techniques might otherwise be beyond the means even of families who can ordinarily meet their medical expenses. In cardiac cases, diagnosis and surgery may require large teams of many kinds of specialists and comparitively long periods of medical and hospital care. And if the heart center or hospital is far from the patient's home, there also would be the costs of transportation, food and lodging.

Close Contact

In most cases, the Heart Committee points out, diagnosis and surgery can be done in the child's home state or a nearby state, and it is seldom necessary to go to distant centers.

Because these agencies may have limited funds to meet all the requests for help, and because the rules of eligibility for such help must be applied in each case, those who seek this assistance should apply as early as possible after learning of the need for medical or surgical care for heart disorders.

For any information call Mrs. Dorothy Oliver, Executive secretary.

Both Parties Cheer Election

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Leaders of both parties found cheer yesterday in returns from Indiana's presidential primary, which showed Vice President Richard M. Nixon outpolling Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) while Democrats piled up a bigger total vote than Republicans.

Nixon's plurality over Kennedy was more than 50,000 on nearly complete returns, 400,291 to 350,190 in 4,284 of 4,299 precincts.

The presidential vote for all candidates was 433,715 for Democrats to 418,039 for Republicans.

1 out of every 10 of your fellow Americans is mentally or emotionally disturbed!

Your understanding can help her find herself!

The best medicines known to science can't take the place of your understanding in helping these people. Today, learn more about this problem!

You should know these three important facts about emotional and mental disorders.

They can happen to anyone. There's no age limit, no wealth limit, no barriers of any kind! A mental disorder is just like any other illness. We should deal with it as we deal with other illnesses!

Science has made amazing progress in the diagnosis and treatment of mental and emotional disturbances!

The better you understand these facts, the better equipped you are to see to it that your own passing emotional upsets don't turn into something serious. And the more you understand, the more you can help those who need your help so badly.

Today, find out more about this problem that afflicts 1 out of every 10 Americans. Send for the new free booklet, "How To Deal With Your Tensions." It offers valuable suggestions on how to relieve everyday emotional troubles. And it tells where those who need professional assistance can find it. The Daily Investor

How Company Benefits

By William A. Doyle

Q. I realize that the market price of a share of stock in a company multiplied by the number of shares outstanding generally reflects the value of the entire company.

But, after a company has sold its stock to the public and that company does not plan to issue any more stock, how does the company benefit if the market price of the stock increases?

William A. Doyle

A. Suppose we go back to the first statement you opened your letter with, especially your use of the word "generally."

Let's assume that the only securities the company has outstanding are one million shares of common stock. If that stock is trading in the market at $20 a share, the entire market value of the company is $20 million. That's the price investors and speculators have put on it.

That market value reflects a lot of things. Among these are the company's plant, equipment, know-how, earnings ability and (perhaps most important in this day and age) potential growth—its future.

You seem to take it for granted that most companies only make one issue of stock. That's not true. Very often a company sale — to finance expansion or Even if the company doesn't for other corporate purposes, sell additional common stock, it may sell preferred stocks or debt securities.

A strong market for the company's outstanding securities normally means that it can do that additional financing at a lower cost.

But, even if there is never any additional financing, there's a darn good reason a company's management likes to see a rise in the market price of the stock.

The top brass of each company usually owns stock in the company. It's to their advantage to see the market value rise. And the investors who own stock in the company are owners of the company. A share of stock is a share of ownership.

Management people often find themselves out on their ears — if they don't keep the stockholders (the owners) happy.

Q. Is it possible to have ownership in stock set up "as joint tenants, with right of surivior-common," so that the first tenant is an individual person and the second is a college?

A. The lawyers whose brains I picked on this one pass on the word that such a method is simply not an acceptable form of registering stock.

The reasoning behind the answer is that a college (or any institution) is considered to have a perpetual existence. So, there could be no survivorship between both tenants.

In order to have a joint tenancy, with right of survivorship both tenants must be people.

Q. What is the minimum interest rate that member firms of New York Stock Exchange are supposed to charge on debit balances — the money owed to them by their customersu Is it 0.5 per cent above the prime rate? Or is it 0.5 per cent above the call money rate?

A. It's 0.5 percent above the call money rate. The call money rate is the rate of interest the brokers borrow at.

(Mr. Doyle will answer only representative letters of general interest in his column. He cannot answer phone queries.)

Kiwanians Hear Dr. Powers

DR. EUGENE Powers, head of the Department of Education at East Stroudsburg State College, described teaching as "the noblest profession" in an address at yesterday's meeting of the Stroudsburg Kiwanis Club at the Penn Stroud Hotel.

The talk emphasized the vital need of recruiting the best young minds which are available for the teaching profession.

"Recruiting of teachers is so vital a task," he said, "that it becomes the duty of every citizen to make the profession attractive to young scholars."

According to Dr. Powers, "The public image of a teacher must be changed so that young people will find it attractive not only from the standpoint of salary but also from the position of status."

The inequity of starting salaries for teachers as opposed to other professions was emphasized. However, status of the teacher as a vital and important citizen of the community was also stressed as the paramount issue in recruitment.

"Young people must feel that teaching offers the opportunity to achieve an income equal to any other profession," the speaker declared.

"They must also know that progress and promotion will be based on their individual energy and merit rather than upon artificial regulations which tend to drive competent teachers into other fields.

"To achieve this goal, it is necessary for every citizen to impress upon the minds of outstanding young students that education is truly the noblest profession," the speaker concluded.

Dr. Powers was introduced by Dr. Kurt Wimer, program chairman.

20,000 More Trout Added

HARRISBURG (AP) — Initial stocking put about 20,000 more trout in Commonwealth waters this year, the State Fish Commission said Thursday, but hatchery problems may cut down on the additional plantings.

"The more important streams are given one or two additional plantings during the season," said Dr. A. S. Hazzard, assistant executive director.

Last year the commission stocked 1,556,883 trout by the beginning of the season and planted a total of 2,258,322 during the year. Despite bad weather which delayed part of the pre-season stocking this year, the commission planted 1,576,960 in initial stocking which was completed last week.

"We suspect we may not do quite as well this year because of production problems at Spring Creek," Hazzard said referring to the overall total.

"Production in the upper Spring Creek hatchery has been impaired by the water quality and the water supply from Spring Creek has caused us to stop the operation of one of the raceways" at the other hatchery location, the Fish Commission official said.

Normally, he said, the raceway produces about 200,000 trout.

Hazzard said the water from Spring Creek, which supplies part of the water for the two Centre County hatchery locations, meets public health requirements. But, he said, it was not as good for raising young fish.

Reports received by the commission so far indicate that the majority of fishermen are reasonably satisfied with conditions this year.

Priority Urged For Development

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. David L. Lawrence Thursday urged the U. S. Senate to give priority to the area development bill passed by the House earlier this week.

"This (bill) is our best hope for combatting the persistent and nagging economic blight in many regions of Pennsylvania," said the vacationing governor in a statement issued by his office.

The measure provides for federal aid to encourage industrial development in areas of chronic unemployment.

Terrill Receives 'Key' Award At Union College

JAMES B. Terrill, East Stroudsburg R.D., a senior at Union College, Schenectady, N.Y., received a Student Activities "Key" award during Union's traditional Prize Day exercises this morning for services which he has rendered as a member of each of the specified organizations.

He is the son of Mrs. T. Edward Terrill.

Prize Day, an annual event at Union, is an occasion on which students are rewarded for scholastic accomplishment and for participation in student activities. Awards take the form of cash prizes, scholarships, and keys.

Sentencing Date In 'Pike Case

HARRISBURG (AP)—The week of May 23 was set Thursday for the trial of two of the remaining indictments stemming from the 1957 special grand jury investigation of Pennsylvania Turnpike activities.

The indictments charge Donald S. Heagy, Camp Hill, an equipment supplier, and August H. Brentari, Pleasant Hill, a former purchasing agent for the Turnpike Commission, with conspiracy and bribery.

Dist. Atty. Martin H. Lock listed the indictments for trial in the June term of Dauphin County Criminal Court after a conference with Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern.

Thousands Cheer Meg

LONDON (AP) — Fifty thousand normally staid Londoners last night gave Princess Margaret a rousing wedding gift — a frenzied, surging demonstration of good wishes and acclaim.

They milled from palace to palace to see the princess and the man she will marry Friday, Antony Armstrong-Jones. They cheered and shouted. They ruined all idea of traffic control and drove the police to distraction. Everybody, otherwise, seemed very happy.

Especially the princess and Armstrong-Jones who drove, or tried to drive, from Clarence House to Buckingham Palace through the great moving mass of humanity crowding the Mall.

Until Wednesday night the public had not been "exactly blase about the wedding, but had been outwardly calm. Then the calm was shattered with the vast outpouring of excitement.

Kiddies' Pond To Be Stocked

THE Saylor's Lake Fishing Assn. will again stock the kiddies fishing pond with trout this Sunday afternoon.

The public is invited to bring their young fishermen, boys and girls up to 12 years. Each child is entitled to catch two trout and the largest ones caught will be registered for prizes.

Last Sunday's winners were Wayne Seltzer, Coopersburg, 10 years old who caught a 15½ inch Rainbow for first prize. Other winners were David Honzo, Palmerton, and Janice Arner, Allentown, each with a 12¾ inch Brown trout; Douglas Handwerk, Nazareth, and Kenney Ewer, Jr., Quakertown, each with a 12½ inch Brown trout.

Mr. Mitchell Yelovich, Freemansburg, recently caught a 21 inch Rainbow weighing 3 lbs. 15 oz.

Maurice Rose, president of the association and fish chairman Charles Landry will engage other fishermen to supervise the children's contest starting at 4:00 p.m.

Just Between Us — —

—By Bobby Westbrook

I really didn't go to Dutch Treat wearing bowling shoes with my best dress but it was a close call. Changing clothes is hectic enough but changing your frame of reference is even harder.

One minute you are cheering your team on like mad—(if in vain since that Betty Schell came all the way home from California to savor victory in the roll-off) and the next you are with Dr. Comanduras, seeing as he did, lone doctors in Asia trying to cope with a clinic for a thousand with no equipment, no medicine, no time.

In running between one meeting and the next you catch fleeting but mighty welcome glimpses of returning natives: Howard Keiper home from Germany and Don Knickman from Alaska, both of them looking so familiar and yet bigger and older after their years of service; or Gladys Hintze, bronzed from Florida.

In the morning, you get involved in plans for the Hawaiian luau and at night try to catch up on the latest developments in the cops and robbers chase.

No wonder there are times when I throw the dishes out the back door and start washing the cat.

It takes something like that Dutch Treat talk last night to bring you up short and make you wonder just why you are rushing off madly in all directions at once. Dr. Comanduras admitted that he missed his practice and his person-to-person contact with his patients, but having once seen for himself the need, he can't forget it. Maybe that's why so many of us try not to look.

Mrs. Baldwin Again Heads Hawaiian Club

Mrs. M. S. Baldwin was elected president for a second term of the Wahines of the Poconos at their annual meeting yesterday morning at the home of Mrs. A. Byrd McDowell.

Other officers elected included Mrs. Francis Shinn, treasurer, and Mrs. Fred Titus, secretary.

Mrs. John Shinn, director of the group, announced that the money given to her each month by the members will this year be used for the Monroe County Mental Health Assn.

Committees were named for the closing luau of the season to be held on May 24 at Bushkill Falls House, Bushkill with Imogene Weiss as hostess, and Doris Shinn as chairman of the luncheon committee.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. T. I. Metzgar, Mrs. Elwood Hintze, Mrs. Francis Shinn, Dr. Mary Hunsicker, Mrs. Fred Titus, Mrs. Frederick Jones, Mrs. Imogene Weiss, Mrs. Horace Westbrook, and Mrs. John Shinn, with Mrs. Baldwin presiding.

Complete Plans For Mother's Day Services

Bartonsville—A special meeting of the Crusaders of St. John's Lutheran Sunday School was held following church school sessions on May 1, to make final arrangements for the Mother's Day service to be held at 7:30 p. m. on May 8. Mrs. Haviland Heller presided.

Wayne Bond and John Field were appointed to serve as ushers and to distribute gifts to specially designated mothers.

Altar flowers and bulletins will be donated by the Cyphers family.

Mrs. Beatrice Swink program chairman, announced that vocal soloists will be Eleanor Beehler, Louis Steen and Bruce Hartman. Linda Paul will present a piano solo. Speaker will be the pastor, Rev. Robert Zuch.

Mrs. Beatrice Swink and Mrs. Robert Field will serve as hostesses at the May 13 meeting, as the previously appointed hostesses, Mrs. Claude Cyphers and Mrs. Verdon Frailey, will be unable to attend.

Those attending the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Haviland Heller, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cyphers, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cyphers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Field, Mrs. Beatrice Swink and Mrs. Joseph Dunbar.

District Gardeners Are Guests Of Portland Club

The Portland Garden Club served as hosts to district 2 of the Garden Club Federation of Pennsylvania with members of the Monroe County Garden Club taking part in the program.

It was an all-day meeting with a luncheon at noon at Tuscarora Inn below Portland, attended by many of the ranking officials of the state federation.

Mrs. Bert Transue, president of the Portland club gave the address of welcome. Mrs. Russell Hamblin, district vice chairman, of Stroudsburg, led the club collect and also reported on the "no-litter" campaign launched by the state of Pennsylvania with the first signs erected in Monroe County.

Mrs. A. Starr Phelps, East Stroudsburg, a member of the district board, gave a report on horticulture. Mrs. Edward C. Knob gave the annual report of activities of the Monroe County Garden Club in the absence of the president, Mrs. I. B. Kiffin.

Chief speaker was Mrs. John H. Squires Jr., a certified Flower Show judge, who has won many blue ribbons herself in the major New York and Philadelphia Shows. Her theme was "Possibilities Unlimited" in which she used articles commonly found around any home to create attractive and unusual arrangements.

State officers present, in addition to those pictured above included Mrs. Leo Hubbuck, third vice president of the state; Mrs. W. Andrew Wright, state awards chairman; Mrs. William Latin, junior activities chairman; Mrs. W. Kenneth Allen, circulation, and others.

Horse, Pony Club Organized By 4-H Clubs

NEWFOUNDLAND — The new 4-H horse and pony club recently organized in this area chose for its official name, "The 4-H Boots and Saddle Club."

Selection of the name was made during the meeting at Ash's Timbertop. Four new members were welcomed, including Dale Walker, Lake Ariel RD 1; Douglas Chapman, Lake Ariel RD 3; Diane and Linda Lamberton, Waymart RD 2.

Larry Lindstrom led the group discussion of the problem of families with more than one 4-H member in the club and only one horse or pony. He told also of the growing interest in horse and pony clubs in this area and announced that there will soon be three in Wayne County, including one in Honesdale, one in northern Wayne, and the Newfoundland club.

Ted Ash, advisor of the group, announced that there will be a horse show at the Greene-Dreher-Sterling Community Fair this year, and that there will be a 4-H class for local members.

There were sixteen members and seven parents on hand for the meeting. Games were led by Dale Stevens, and refreshments were served. Mike Smith was named to have charge of refreshments at the next meeting.

Bake Sale To Benefit E. S. Little League

The annual bake sale sponsored by the Mother's Aux. of the East Stroudsburg Little League will be held tomorrow at the Famous Department Store, East Stroudsburg.

This year the sale will feature home-baked breads and pies as well as cakes. Another new feature will be the sale of potted plants suitable for Mother's Day. The public is invited to patronize the sale from which the proceeds will be used for necessary equipment for the Little League this year.

At the April meeting of the Auxiliary with Mrs. George Motts presiding, James Smith, one of the team managers, explained the purpose of the Little League and the expenditures necessary to operate it. He praised the women for their support.

The auxiliary also plans to hold two benefits and a tag day later in the summer.

Back From West Indies

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cyphers, of Bartonsville, have returned home from a five day vacation trip to Jamaica, British West Indies. The Cyphers left Philadelphia International Airport on the morning of April 24, and landed at Montego Bay that afternoon. From there they traveled 62 miles inland to the Arawak Hotel, in the mountains. The next several days were spent sightseeing and shopping. On April 28, Mr. and Mrs. Cyphers departed from the British West Indies at the Kingston Airport.

Miss Beverly Ann Bishop Married In Bangor Church

Bangor — Miss Beverly Ann Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Bishop of Bangor RD 2, was married on April 29 at 6 p.m. in the First United Church, Bangor, to Marvin James De Pamphilis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin DePamphilis, of 240 South Third St., Bangor.

Rev. Alun O. Jones, of Bellefontaine, Ohio, assisted by Rev. C. B. Starr of Bangor, officiated. Mrs. Bonnie Miller was organist and Donald Shook, soloist.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a long sleeved gown of re-embroidered nylon tulle over taffeta styled with a sabrina neckline and a bouffant skirt with side tiers sweeping back to a cotillion train. She wore a fingertip veil of silk illusion falling from a crown trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of calla lillies, on a white Bible with diffenbachia leaves and Boston ivy trailing.

Barbara Ann Bickert of 50 South 12th St., Easton, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Joy Bellis, Brass Castle Road, Washington, N. J.; Mrs. Dave Bellis 823½ High St., Bangor; Mrs. Betty Bickford, South Main St., Bangor; Miss Caren Reimel, 307 Miller St., Bangor, and the junior bridesmaid, Miss Bonnie Kay Finkbeiner, of Bangor RD 2.

The attendants wore street-length dresses of blue silk organza with matching headpieces of blue nylon tulle trimmed with pearls. They carried cascade bouquets of blue and white carnations with trailing Boston ivy. The maid of honor carried white carnations with blue ribbons and trailing ivy.

The junior bridesmaid wore an embroidered nylon party dress with a blue flowered bonnet and carried a read basket with white ribbon and trailing ivy.

The flower girl, Joy Lomping, of 805 Grant St., Easton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lomping Jr., wore a miniature of the junior bridesmaid's ensemble.

Jonothan Lock, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lock, Pine and Moore Sts., Easton, was ring bearer.

John L. DeCesare of 225 Market St., Bangor, was best man. Ushers were Jack Bellis, Washington, N. J., Gary Bellis, 632½ High St., Bangor; William Bickford, South Main St., Bangor, and Donald Rissmiller, of 2507 Eldridge Ave., Easton. The junior usher was Dennis Bishop, of Bangor RD 2.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Blue Valley Farm Show building in Bangor.

After a wedding trip to Florida and the Southern states, Mr. and Mrs. DePamphilis will be at home at 238 South Third St., Bangor, after May 15.

They are both graduates of Bangor High School. The bride is employed at Blue Ridge Textile Co., Bangor and the bridegroom is a salesman for Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co., Allentown branch.

Bushkill PTA Buys Cabinets

Bushkill — The Bushkill Parent-Teachers Assn. voted to give a gift of money to Mr. Whittaker who is retiring as school custodian. Herbert Martin, president, named Albert Smith Jr. to represent the PTA at a dinner honoring Whittaker.

At the meeting, the members voted to buy three filing cabinets, one for each classroom. They will place an ad in the Middle Smithfield yearbook.

A panel discussion on the pros and cons of consolidating the PTAs of the Bushkill and Middle Smithfield School was postponed until next month because of the small attendance. Ralph Turn Jr. and Albert Smith of the Bushkill PTA and Robert Beards and Michael Pascarello of Middle Smithfield compose the panel.

Mrs. Palmer's first grade won the banner for parent attendance. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Peggy Turn, Mrs. Imogene Weiss and Albert DeRenzis.

Paul Walker Heads Pocono Fellowship

Sterling — Paul Walker, Gouldsboro, was elected president of the Pocono Sub-district Adult Fellowship during the banquet meeting at Sterling Methodist Church. He succeeds Robert Krieger, of Greentown, in the office.

Also elected were Frazee Howe, of Daleville, vice president; Marie Curtis, Sterling, secretary; and Martha Chapman, Hamlin, treasurer.

Rev. Ben Holeman, Lakeville, was the speaker.

"the friendly store"
A.B. Wyckoff
STROUDSBURG, PA.

This is the day: pals of Betty Frantz joined together to buy her a stunning pair of black slacks, embroidered in white, as a belated way of saying "Happy Birthday." BELATED because birthdays sometimes have to take second place until pay day rolls around. . . . Esther Ainspac showed me the many wonderful new things in our cosmetic department, including a brilliantly packaged shipment of Straw Hat toiletries, and some handsome etched and enameled purse flacons for perfume which would be perfect for Mother on HER DAY this Sunday, May 8th. The flacons are priced from 3.50 to 10.00 and come complete with funnel. (When you give 'em to Mom, I suppose one might call it "the funnel of love.") . . . It is the day when I met Clare Coleman in the store, shopping for a birthday gift for her daughter, Mariclare Meunier. Clare tells me that John (formerly of WVPO) loves Arizona, is doing very well in his new position at Station KIKO, but both his wife and he miss Monroe County. As for the third member of the family, Antoinette is growing like the proverbial weed. (Tumbleweed, maybe, since she's about at the toddler stage!) . . . It's the day when George Mackey and his Blanche are among the many public spirited citizens called to the White House for a conference. "Take my tape recorder along, Blannie," I teased, "and interview Ike for me." Blannie would have been just the gal to do it too—you can't keep her quiet anymore than you can keep champagne from bubbling . . . It's the day when Mary Serfass of our Men's Shop brought another Madonna in for my collection—the reproduction of a wood carving by David Chitku, an African student, and when Edith Jacobson stopped by for a few moments of conversation, during which I learned that she is the incoming president of Hadassah. (Those Hadassah girls always manage to have real go-getters at the helm —but then, why not? They're ALL go-getters) . . . It's a day that started off badly for me when, after some minutes of chattering away like a magpie, I discovered that the mike was dead and our program wasn't even on the air . . . It's the day of the big, all-around-town fashion show at the Penn Stroud Hotel, when every one of the participating stores will prove once again what a wonderful shopping center Stroudsburg is, and how excellent our apparel shops are . . . This is the day when we are one day nearer MOTHER'S DAY, and I must remember to pick up the package awaiting me in the Gift Wrap Center. It is a day when, if I could afford it, I'd buy my Mom just about everything her heart might desire, because she's a real good skate and I love her, and then, if I were wealthy enough, I'd buy some little token for all those other mothers everywhere who may be forgotten . . . It's a day when Joe Whalen, WVPO's program director, and Ernie Transue, the station engineer, worked with me dubbing appropriate music onto my taped interview with Father George Papadeas of the Greek Orthodox Church at Hempstead, L.I., so that this Mother's Day broadcast (Sunday from 5:30 to 6) might be reverent, and beautiful. This along with my Wyckoff Shopper columns tape will eventually go to Constantinople, the home locale of the Greek Orthodox religion.

Warriors Pound Wilkes 8-2 For Fifth Win; Snyder Homers

A TRIO of East Stroudsburg State College pitchers set Wilkes College down on seven hits, to give the Warriors an 8-2 win at Wilkes Thursday.

It was the fifth victory in six starts for East Stroudsburg, whose lone loss was a 10-0 beating by West Chester.

Bob Genesemer opened on the mound for the Warriors. He worked six innings of scoreless ball, allowing only four hits. They were the only men to reach first against Genesemer.

Weldon Michaels pitched the seventh and eighth. He was charged with both Wilkes runs. Michaels gave up two singles and a double and struck out three.

LeRoy Smith set the side down in order in the ninth.

Snyder Homers

Walt Snyder unloaded a two-run homer over the 352-feet left field wall in the sixth inning.

Al Stockholm posted three hits for the Warriors, including a triple and double.

East Stroudsburg jumped to a 1-0 lead in the first inning.

With two out, Stockholm tripled to deep right center and scored on a wild pitch.

Red Lienert's single in the third inning scored Stockholm from second to up the count to 2-0.

Big Inning

The Warriors broke the game wide open in the sixth, pushing across four runs.

Lienert opened the frame by flying out to left field. Barry Wray was safe on an error by Joe Aquilino. Snyder's four bagger made it 4-0.

Joe Pusateri singled and was safe at second on a hit and run play that backfired to the Warrior's advantage.

With Genesemer up and the hit and run on, Pusateri broke for second. Genesemer missed the ball but Pusateri beat the throw to second.

Genesemer hit the next pitch for a single, Pusateri stopping at third. Genesemer stole second to put both men in scoring position.

Single Scores Two

Ernie Howe punched a single to bring in Pusateria and Genesemer and run the count to 6-0. But the scoring wasn't over.

Stockholm got his third hit of the game, a single to open the seventh. Charlie Rider doubled with Stockholm stopping at third. Barry Wray's single brought in both runners.

Wilkes sandwiched a walk between a single and double for its lone tallies in the eighth.

Wilkes Hands ESSC 14-4 Golf Loss; Bishop Wins

DALLAS — Wilkes College golf team won all but one match in beating East Stroudsburg State College 14-4, over the Irem Temple Country Club course here Thursday.

George Bishop posted an 85 over the par 72 layout, to take medalist honors for the Warriors. He won a 3-0 decision from Pete McGlaughlin.

Tony Salerno scored the only other East Stroudsburg point in losing 2-1 to Jay Alexy.

Scoring was based on Nassau system of one point for each nine holes and a third point for the 18 holes.

Howell Has 87

Wayne Howell trailed Bishop in the individual Warrior scoring with an 87.

Al Stralka of Wilkes, turned in the low score of the day, a four-over-par 76.

Bishop, Howell, Jerry Garnet and John Makuvek will represent East Stroudsburg in the State College Championship at Slippery Rock, Monday.

The Warriors close their season Tuesday at Millersville.

Virdon's Pinch-hit Triple Spoils Boudreau's Debut

CHICAGO (AP) — Pinch-hitter Bill Virdon's two-run triple with two out in the ninth broke a 7-7 tie and gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 9-7 victory which ruined Lou Boudreau's debut as Chicago Cub manager Thursday.

Boudreau, named Wednesday as the resigned Charley Grimm's successor, shook up the Cub lineup vainly as the Pirates erased a 7-2 deficit with a 5-run burst in the seventh and then clinched the decision with Virdon's three-base smash.

Virdon's key blow, coming after Dick Schofield and Gino Cimoli singled, hung the defeat on the third Cub pitcher, Glen Hobbie. Hobbie succeeded Don Elston and starter Seth Morehead.

The winner was Fred Green, the third Pirate pitcher.

Phillies Defeat Cards

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Philadelphia right-hander Jim Owens allowed only five hits Thursday night as he defeated the Cardinals 3 to 1.

It was just the third defeat for the St. Louis club during a 12-game home stand in which the Redbirds previously had averaged better than seven runs a game.

Pancho Herrera's homer after two were out in the fourth inning, followed by Wally Post's double and Ken Walter's circuit blow gave Owens the three runs, one more than he needed for his second victory.

The Phillies' victim was Wilmer Mizell, who has won five and lost none from them last season but this time suffered his second los of the new campaign.

Thomas Misses Outdoor Mark

BOSTON (AP)—John Thomas failed Thursday to up the world's outdoor high jump record that he set last Saturday when he cleared 7 feet 1½ inches in Philadelphia.

Competing in an AAU sanctioned Olympic development meet at Boston University field, the 19-year-old B. U. sophomore leaped 7 feet ¼ inches, defeating Bob Rittenberg of Harvard Spiked Shoe Club and his own teammates.

Siever's Belt Beats Old Mates, 5-3

WASHINGTON (AP) — Roy Sievers returned to his old slugging ground Thursday night and immediately walloped a two-run homer that launched the Chicago White Sox to a 5-3 victory over the Washington Senators.

The victory lifted the Sox into a virtual tie with the idle New York Yankees for first place in the American League.

Sievers' smash, after Minnie Minoso walked in the first inning, landed in the left field bleachers, the usual place for his homers at Griffin Stadium before Washington traded him to Chicago.

Battey Belts

Earl Battey, one of the White Sox obtained for Sievers, made it an even exchange with a ninth-inning homer but by then Chicago had it wrapped up.

Starter Bob Shaw received credit for his second triumph of the season, although Manager Al Lopez called on Turk Lown to finish after Billy Gardner and Lenny Green opened the eighth with consecutive singles.

Lakers Smash Barrett 15-4 To Increase Monroe Lead

POCONO LAKE smacked Barrett 15-4 Thursday to take a one and a half game lead in the Monroe Scholastic League.

Pocono Twp. whipped Chestnuthill 15-1 to move into a second place tie with Barrett.

Coolbaugh won its first game, 8-1 over last place Polk.

The Lakers Gerald Keiper smacked a bases loaded homerun in the first inning off starter and loser Ross Beck. The Tobyhanna team upped the count to 14-1 before Barrett pushed a cross a run in the fourth.

Dunlap Wins

Bob Dunlap worked four innings for the Lakers and picked up the win. He gave up only two hits and a lone run. Keiper worked the last three frames, allowing three runs on four hits.

Barrett committed 10 errors including four by catcher Clark and three by rightfielder A. J. Bittner.

Aspromonte's First Homer Snaps Dodger Losing Streak

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rookie Bob Aspromonte broke up the game with a 10th-inning single and the Los Angeles Dodgers pulled out of a four-game losing streak Thursday by dropping the Milwaukee Braves 4-3.

The Dodgers loaded the bases in the 10th with none out. Reliever Bob Rush retired two men before Aspromonte bounced his single up the middle, scoring Wally Moon.

The Dodgers, trailing 3-0 after six innings, went into the game with nine losses in their last 12 times out.

Mel Roach smashed his first homer of the year for the Braves with one aboard in the second and Hank Aaron his fifth with the bases empty in the sixth. Aspromonte and Don Demeter slammed bases empty homers for the Dodgers in the seventh.

Tribe Smacks Birds

BALTIMORE (AP)—Tito Francona's first homer of the season and his two doubles led a 15-hit Cleveland offense Thursday night for an 11-6 victory over the Baltimore Orioles who scared the Indians briefly after their rookie pitcher Wynn Hawkins was hit by a line drive on his right shoulder.

The liner off the bat of Jim Gentile in the eighth inning bounded high in the air all the way out to right field after hitting Hawkins. Although the 24-year-old right-hander did not appear to have suffered disabling injury, he was replaced by Bob Grim.

Richards Thumbed

The Orioles smashed four straight hits off him for as many runs to trail by 9-6. It was an uproarious inning with Manager Paul Richards of the Orioles being banished for arguing with Umpire Al Smith.

Francona's homer over the right field wall in the eighth followed a two-run scoring double in the first inning and another run producing two-bagger in the sixth. He walked his other two times at bat.

Kart Course Opens

A POCONO Kart Course will open its newly paved 1,350-foot track Sunday at 1 p.m.

The races, which will be open to the public at reduced admission, will be a preview of the track's May 15 grand opening.

Races will be run according to engine size, with special events for children and lady drivers. A twin-engine kart race is tentatively scheduled.

Top Speeds

A 300-yard straightaway in front of the grandstand will enable the larger karts to reach speeds of 65 miles per hour.

The Kart Course, formerly the Stroudsburg Speedway, is next to the airport off Rt. 209.

There is seating room for 1,500 and several acres of free parking space.

Reds Win On Pinson's Stolen Bases

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Fleet Vada Pinson stole two bases and scored the winning run on a sacrifice fly Thursday as Cincinnati completed a two-game sweep over San Francisco with a 4-3 victory.

The Giants' Johnny Antonelli, making his first start of the 1960 season, gave up only four hits and had a 3-2 lead when he was lifted after seven innings.

Play The Ball Well Back On Shot Into Head Wind

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the first of a series of golfing instruction articles by Pocono Mountain golf professionals to appear weekly in The Daily Record).

By Sam Kinder
Golf Professional
Glen Brook C. C.

A STIFF head wind is no reason for golfers to call off a round.

With a few adjustments any golfer who can score on a windless day should also be able to score in a wind.

Most average players realize that to get any distance on a shot into the wind, the ball must be kept low. But few know the secrets of preventing the ball from rising into the teeth of the wind. A common remark on a windy course is "look at the wind bring that ball back."

One Club Less

The first adjustment that must be made on a shot into the wind is in the choice of clubs.

A good rule to follow, is to use a club one number lower than the shot would call for on a calm day. If you would normally use a five-iron, use a four into the wind.

Next you must change the placement of your feet in relation to the ball.

No Loft

By playing the ball back toward the right foot, the ball is struck on the downward swing, preventing any unnecessary loft.

A three-quarter follow-through with a straight right arm will also cut down on the loft and give a "punch" effect.

A tee shot into the wind should be hit with a normal swing but the ball is teed directly between the feet.

The weight must be kept on the left foot on the down-swing, to prevent "pop up" drives. A full-follow through is used with the woods.

Short Review

Reviewing the changes for wind shots. Use a club one number below what the shot would call for on a still day. Play the ball to the right of center with an iron and in the center with a wood off the tee. A three-quarter follow through with a stiff right arm on iron shots, full follow through with woods. Keep the weight on the left foot on tee shots.

Tompion, Bally Ache Head 14 Horse Kentucky Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Fourteen names were dropped into the entry box at Churchill Downs Thursday for the 86th Kentucky Derby, but in the opinion of most observers the $125,000-added classic remains strictly a two-horse duel between Tompion and Bally Ache.

This has hardly been a deep secret for weeks, what with C. V. Whitney's Tompion having it rather easy with the California opposition and Leonard Fruchtman's Bally Ache definitely the kingpin of Florida winter racing. On top of that, the rigors of racing had removed what might have been a lot more rivals.

Not that the 12 others in the mile and one-quarter are conceding anything as Louisville awaits the 4:30 p.m. EST start on Saturday.

Hillsborough Doubtful

Isaac Blumberg's Venetian Way, E. P. Taylor's Victoria Park, S. J. Crew's Cuvier Relic, and Calumet Farm's Hillsborough — if he starts—are given the best chance among the others.

However, Tompion was rated the 7-5 favorite in spite of his left field post position — No. 14 on the extreme outside. The Downs' handicapper made Bally Ache second choice at 5-2 in spite of the favorable No. 3 post for this speed demon. Tompion won the Santa Anita Derby, while Bally Ache copped the Flamingo and Florida Derby during the winter.

The post draw, weather and track conditions and the decision of Calumet trainer Jimmy Jones on Hillsborough's status must figure in who hauls down the jackpot, a garland of roses and a $5,000 gold cup.

One thing seems certain, Jockey Bobby Ussery will jet Bally Ache out of the gate soon after the band blares "My Old Kentucky Home" and Willie Shoemaker on Tompion will have to do the catching.

Weather is a factor, for rain mud moves Bally Ache up. He won the Stepping Stone purse last Saturday, whipping Venetian Way by 3¼ lengths on an off track. The forecast is for rain Friday, but clearing Saturday.

Third Choice

Venetian Way, with Bill Hartack up, is third choice at 6-1. Cuvier Relic, who finished second in Tuesday's Derby Trial, and the Canadian hope, Victoria Park, both were 15-1.

T. A. Grissom's Lurullah, Anthony Graffagnini's Tony Graff, H. and S. Elmore's Henrijan, Adele L. Rand's Bourbon Prince, the Llangollen Farm's Divine Comedy, M. H. Van Berg's Spring Broker, the Valley Farm's Yomolka, and Mrs. C. S. Hodge's Fighting Hodge round out the field. The last three were placed in the parimutuel field for betting purposes since the tote board carries only 12 numbers.

All will pack 126 pounds.

New Leaders In ABC

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Andy Marzich and Dick Jensen of Norwalk, Calif., took over first place in the American Bowling Congress Tournament doubles Thursday with a 1,369 series.

Marzich set the pace with a rousing 210-237-259 — 706 series, while Jensen held up his end nicely on 214-249-200—663. Marzich had the only open frame when he missed the headpin in an effort to convert a 1-2-4 leave in the fifth frame of the first game.

Replaces Ohioans

The new leaders replaced Andy Hudoba and Jack Baum of Youngstown, who led the doubles division since they rolled 1,358 on March 23.

Viny Yettito and Ben McNevich of Greenwich, Conn., also moved into the doubles standings when they combined for a 1,305 total to take fifth place, Yettito had a 651 and McNevich a 654.

Ragan, Whitt Take Lead At Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Young Dave Ragan and Don Whitt, virtually overlooked in the excitement over better-known golfers, fired 5-under-par 67s Thursday to take the lead in the first round of the $42,400 Tournament of Champions.

Ragan, 24-year-old belter from Orlando, Fla., and Whitt, 29, from Borrego Springs, Calif., toured the 7,000-yard par 36-36—72 Desert Inn Country Club course in 34-33—67.

Performing before a sunswept gallery of more than 7,000, the pair took a one-stroke lead over Jay Hebert of Lafayette, La., and Mason Rudolph, of Clarksville, Tenn.

Hebert Rallies

Hebert rallied with a 32 on the second nine to move into contention.

Rudolph, who defeated Sam Snead in their now celebrated filmed television act last winter, was five under par coming to the 18th green. But he took a bogie five when he drilled into the deep rough and then into a trap to the left of the green.

Weather Breaks

The players got a break when the expected windstorm from Wednesday disappeared Thursday. But not so lucky were some of the heralded stars of the tournament.

Arnold Palmer, the Master's champion and pretournament favorite, shot a 39-33—72, and Mike Souchak, the winner here last year, had 35-37—72.

U.S. Open Champion Billy Casper Jr., required a 37-36—73, and Gene Littler was the high man in the field of 21 with 39-36—75. Littler is a three-time winner of the seven tournaments staged in this Nevada playground.

Tied at 69 were Art Wall Jr., Ken Venturi, Jack Fleck and Jerry Barber.

Play will be resumed Friday.

Patty Advances In London Tennis

HURLINGHAM, England (AP)—Budge Patty, 1950 Wimbledon winner, defeated Dennis Hales, a London bus driver, 6-2, 6-2 Tuesday in the first round of the London Hard Courts Tennis Championship.

The match was all over in 40 minutes and at the end Hales immediately went back to work. Patty, the Californian who lives in France, never removed his sweater in the one-sided game.

Your Horoscope Today

By FRANCIS DRAKE

For Friday, May 6, 1960

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—A rainbow of benefic planetary aspects this fine Friday. The first Friday of the month — a good omen for the whole of May. Finish incompleted matters, also start necessary new things.

April 21 to May 21 (Taurus) — Venus and many other planets now vibrant, progressive. Start your day with a prayer, then you are more fit for your schedule no matter how difficult or easy. Fine rays.

May 22 to June 21 (Gemini) — Third fine day in a row. We have much for which to be thankful, let us share some of our good with the less fortunate. You can accomplish a great deal now if you plan and work sincerely.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer) — Opportune time for completing unfinished matters or for starting new projects. Scan your "musts" and quickly, efficiently go to work on them. You will find day cooperative, genial.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo) — Made to order for you spirited, generous and ambitious Leoites. Don't let common sense be overrun with too much enthusiasm. Be your sensible self and work earnestly.

August 24 to September 23 (Virgo) — Same as Gemini now. You should be animated, cheerful and hopeful of benefits and other gifts. Much to be done and much can be done, and well, this invigorating day. Read, rest, enjoy a hobby.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra) — This should be a very progressive and productive day. You can make mediocre materials and products shine with newness and fresh glamour. Your specific interests favored.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio) — Practically all honest professions, trades and callings are sanctioned this generous period. Endorse charitable, humane, interesting and cultural activities, and receive blessings.

November 23 to December 21 (Sagittarius) — Make the most of auspicious aspects that abound here. Every day may not be so amenable, responsive to efforts as today should be.

December 22 to January 20 (Capricorn) — It's a pleasure to announce that indications are splendid today. Add zest where things need it. Handling vehicles, machinery, tools and delicate instruments all favored. Good rays.

January 21 to February 19 (Aquarius) — Travel for business, making essential changes in many departments and putting more glamour in merchandise, etc. favored. Be enterprising, consistently busy with necessary and urgent matters.

February 20 to March 20 (Pisces) —Sensible caution stressed in sea travel, fishing, all water sports. Day generous for daily routine and finishing things already started. Fine for mental alertness, experiments, too.

YOU BORN TODAY are actively mentally, have wonderful memories, are receptive to learning and have a fine understanding of building, architecture, modeling and making things in furniture, other lines of commodities. Fond of personal comfort and also seek this for your family, dear ones. Children and old folks, also animals are fond of you. Taureans are clever, talented and as a rule of fine appearance. A magnetic personality, can sway others with your sincerity and eloquence. Be careful to choose friends only of fine principles, high character. Control excesses in eating and drinking. New Club Pilot Switches Line-up, Helps Drabowsky

CHICAGO (AP) — Lou Boudreau, onetime boy wonder American League manager, Thursday took over the Chicago Cubs reins with a lineup shakeup and a promise to make pitcher Moe Drabowsky his "No. 1 project."

Moryn reportedly was in the doghouse of Charley Grimm, who Wednesday stepped down as manager in favor of Boudreau, Cub "color" broadcaster who formerly managed Cleveland, Boston and Kansas City in the American League.

At least, Moryn — a .271 hitter in over four Cub seasons—was not playing for Grimm as the Cubs won 6 of their first 17 games.

Thomas, acquired last December from the Cincinnati Reds, played first base at times during his six-year career with the Pirates.

Boudreau moved Ernie Banks from fourth to third in the lineup, put Moryn in the cleanup spot and Thomas, fifth. Banks and Thomas each have five home runs and are right-handed batters. Moryn, who had a Cub homer high of 26 in 1958, is a left-handed batter.

"I figure sticking Moryn between Banks and Thomas will give us better distribution of right-handed power," said Boudreau.

Boudreau wasted little time getting to work on Drabowsky, a disappointing pitcher this season.

Drabowsky, extremely wild, has appeared in 5 games, but has pitched only 3 innings, yielding 9 runs.

"He has to turn his body more and learn to keep the ball low," said Boudreau. "Most of all, he must get some confidence. He's my No. 1 project."

Baseball Brass Denounce Kefauver Control Bill

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball's bigwigs denounced a bill introduced by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) Thursday as one that would kill the minor leagues, stifle all incentive and reduce the quality of play.

Led by Commissioner Ford Frick, the majors' top brass denied Kefauver's claim they were hoarding players and refuted his charge that some of the clubs were controlling as many as 450 players.

A club-by-club inventory showed that the majors actually owned or controlled 3,084 players, an average of 193 a club. The most owned by any club are 275 players by the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Kefauver's bill would forbid any club to own or control more than 100 players, and would require them once a year to offer at least 60 of them for unlimited draft to other clubs.

The bill also is designed to give minor league players some choice as to which major league team to play for, and make it easier for the new Continental League to obtain necessary playing talent for its proposed start in 1961.

The strongest statements were made by Frick, league presidents Waren Giles and Joe Cronin.

Only one baseball executive, President Phil Wrigley Jr., of the Chicago Cubs, expressed himself in favor of the bill.

"I am convinced the effect of this bill would eliminate minor league baseball," said Frick.

"No major league club would have any inducement to enter into agreements, to operate farm clubs or to subsidize minor league operations if players were subject annually to unrestricted draft, at a fixed price far below the cost figure.

"No major league club would be justified in conducting a scouting program, setting up a player development plan or signing players to a term contract if they are to be denied the reward of that investment. Nor can any minor league club afford to operate independently at present costs and without assured income."

"I think it's a good idea," said Wrigley. "The senator is picking up where Judge Landis left off. It's okay with me. I believe in competition."

Wrigley obviously was referring to a ruling by the late Commissioner Landis in 1938 that freed a number of players covered up by the St. Louis Cardinals, then under the general managership of Branch Rickey, president of the Continental League.

A number of the club owners and executives said they wanted to study the bill before issuing any statement.

Bowling Pros Start Tourney Trail

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — This month when bowlers in the business men's and church leagues are toting up season averages and planning banquets, the experts of the hardwood lanes hit the tournament trail in quest of cash prizes totaling more than $150,000.

The first of seven events on the program of the National Professional Bowlers Assn. is the Empire State Open at Albany, N.Y. May 13, 14 and 15. There 140 master pin-busters will be after $16,500 in prizes ranging from $2,500 for first to $150 for 28th.

The competition is in blocks of seven games each on Friday and Saturday. The field narrows to the 56 high scorers for Sunday afternoon and gets cut again to 28 for the Sunday night's seven-game finale. Awards are made on pin totals for the 28 games.

Among the big-name bowlers who will follow the NPBA tournament trail in the coming seven months are Don Carter, Billy Welu, Buddy Bomar, Eddie Lubanski, Dick Weber, Ray Bluth, Tom Hennessey, Dick Hoover, Steve Nagy, Harry Smith and Frank Clause.

From Albany they go to Fairless Hills, Pa., on May 17, 18 and 19 for the $15,300 Fairlanes Open; and on May 20-21-22, the $17,400 Eastern Open takes them to Paramus, N.J.

The trail leads to the Far West in June for the $22,000 National Professional Invitational at Las Vegas June 20-21-22, and the $18,100 Northern California Open at San Francisco the following weekend. Prize money totals $24,200 for the Southern California Open at Los Angeles July 6-7-8-9.

Finale for the year is the $40,000 National Professional Bowlers Association Tournament in Memphis Nov. 25 through 28.

Atlanta, Chicago Get Grid Teams

NEW YORK (AP)—Atlanta and Chicago have been granted the ninth and tenth franchises in the American Football League, Harry Wismer said Tuesday. He is president of the New York Titans of the league and also is chairman of the AFL's Expansion Committee.

Wismer said that the Chicago team definitely would play in 1961 and that the Atlanta franchise might get into action at that time if Georgia Tech's Grant Field could be obtained for the season.

Atlanta's new stadium is expected to be completed in time for 1962.

Waring Elected To Third Term As Dutch Treat Head

TOM Waring was elected president of the Dutch Treat Club for a third term by the unanimous vote of the members at the closing dinner meeting last night at the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

Dr. Robert Brown was elected vice president; Robert Schell, treasurer; and Mrs. Eric Schuchard, secretary. James Groner reported for the nominating committee.

Waring, under whose leadership the club has gained in membership and strength, explained that Dutch Treat Clubs as a national organization was no longer available but because of the interest here, the local Dutch Treat Club will continue and will arrange its own lecturers.

Speakers List

Members checked from a list of 11 possible speakers including Louis Untermayer, Hensleigh C. Wedgewood, Frankie Frish, Munro Leaf and Vincent Sheean, their own choices. To bring speakers of such caliber here, it will be necessary to increase the membership of the club, Waring said, appointing each member as a committee of one to secure another member.

He also suggested sponsoring a public lecture of a nationally-known figure as a means of securing additional program funds. Further details of next year's program and plans will be announced after the ballots have been counted.

The final speaker of this season, Dr. Peter D. Comanduras provided a challenging conclusion to a stimulating season.

Directed To Individual

His challenge was directed to the individual in bringing the chasm between the "ragged revolution" of emerging peoples and the complacency of Americans whose ideals of the dignity and brotherhood of man, justice, and tolerance have inspired that revolution.

Dr. Camandurus gave up his own extensive private practice in Washington, D.C., to become administrator of MEDICO, sponsored by the International Rescue Commission.

His travels, particularly through Africa and Asia, (he returned from Cambodia just last week) let him speak with authority of the chasm between the two worlds:

One half of the people of the world never see a physician from birth to premature death.

Three-fourths of the world is born in poverty and misery.

People are still dying by the thousands of diseases we never hear of in this country, Biblical diseases like leprosy, cholera, small-pox, typhoid fever, dysentery, and malnutrition.

"What can one man do among the teeming, suffering millions?" was a question he answered by pointing to the accomplishments of men like Dr. Gordon, Seagrave in Burma, Dr. Schweitzer in Africa, Dr. Tom Dooley in Laos.

City Greets

"Those groups who criticize Tom Dooley because he's aggressive and irritating to some people should visit him in Laos where the whole city turns out to greet him when he only takes a stroll," he said.

Governmental aid, like governmental representatives, often is confined to the capitals of the country not the provinces where the need is greatest, he said. Even the World Health Organization confines itself to public health doctors. MEDICO seeks to send surgeons, specialists and general practitioners where on a person-to-person basis, seeking only to help, they make the friends America needs but cannot buy with checks, he said.

New Officers Installed

THE East Stroudsburg Businessmen's Assn. held its May meeting last night at Bill Altiers.

Installation of new officers was the highlight as out-going president, Dave Bernbaum, thanked and praised the membership for its cooperation throughout the year.

Bernbaum urged the membership to continue the good work and expressed his wishes that the year ahead would be an even more productive year for the association.

Bernbaum introduced the new officers as: president, Seymour Ellsweig; vice president, Jay Sleep; secretary, Ann Atwell; treasurer, Albert Koster.

It was reported that the association now has 51 members.

The lighting program in East Stroudsburg was discussed and it was reported that approximately half of the proposed plan was approved by the East Stroudsburg Council.

Also aired was the Laurel Blossom Festival. The association will enter a float in the event. Various committee heads were appointed to conduct the different phases of the association's business.

Guests present were officials of both the Greyhound and Martz Bus companies.

State Revenue Below Estimate

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Lawrence administration yesterday reported revenues running $16,600,000 below estimates.

Two developments puzzled the governor's fiscal experts:

Sales tax receipts were off 7 million dollars in April alone.

Corporation net income taxes advance payments were 7 million dollars above estimates.

These taxes are the leaders among the state's income producers.

IN THE ORPHANS' COURT OF MONROE COUNTY

IN RE: ESTATE OF WILLIAM KOHN, LATE OF THE VILLAGE OF TOBYHANNA, COUNTY OF MONROE, PA., DECEASED

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE OF PUBLIC SALE OF DECEDENT'S REAL ESTATE

TO THE HEIRS, CREDITORS AND OTHER PERSONS INTERESTED IN SAID ESTATE:

NOTICE is hereby given that Walter Heiser, Administrator, has filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Orphans' Court his petition praying for the sale of the real estate of the decedent, being a tract of land situate in the Township of Coolbaugh, described as follows:

BEGINNING at a corner of Wall Street and Goodwin Street; thence southwest 113.6 feet to an iron monument; thence along land of the D.L. & W. RR. Co., northwest 61 feet, thence along lands of Irene Williamson Northeast 112.8 feet to a post; thence along Goodwin Street Southeast 64.5 feet to place of BEGINNING.

The said premises will be sold at public sale by Walter Heiser, Administrator, at the above described premises in the Village of Tobyhanna, County of Monroe, Pa., at 1:30 P.M. (Eastern Daylight Saving Time) on May 27, 1960. The said sale is for the payment of decedent's debts and if no exceptions be filed thereto or objections made to granting the same, the Court will be asked to take action upon the petition and confirm the said sale on Monday, June 6, 1960, at 1:30 o'clock P. M. (Eastern Daylight Saving Time) in Court Room #1 of the Court House at Stroudsburg, Monroe County, Pennsylvania.

J. JOSEPH McCLUSKEY, ESQ.
Attorney for Petitioner
14 S. 7th Street
Stroudsburg, Pa.

NOTICE

The proposed budget of the East Stroudsburg Borough School District for the year of 1960-1961 will be available for public inspection to and including May 25th, 1960 at the office of the Supervising Principal at the Administration building, 209 Grove Street, E. S. by order of the Board of Directors.

HORACE G. WALTERS, Pres.
JAS. S. BUNNELL, Secy.

Pursuant to Act 195, Clause (b) of the Act of June 30, 1953, the School District of East Stroudsburg, Monroe Co., Pa. wishes to give notice of the requirements of this subsection, namely: "Every resident or inhabitant in any school district, upon attaining twenty-one years of age, and every person twenty-one years of age or over becoming a resident or inhabitant in any school district, shall within twelve months after the happening thereof, notify the proper assessors of his becoming of age or becoming a resident or inhabitant. Any person failing, within said period, to notify the assessors of the school district within which he resides, shall, in condition to the tax levied by such school district, be liable to such school district in a penal sum equal to such tax."

Listed according to wards, the names and addresses of the assessors are as follows:

First Ward: Halford M. Risley, 117 Ridgeway St.
Second Ward: Elinor Randolph, 120 Stemple St.
Third Ward: Madelyn Shepps, 243 Washington St.
Fourth Ward: Verdon Gilliland, 57 East Broad St.
Fifth Ward: Harold H. Smith, 170 No. Courtland St.
Sixth Ward: Francis Q. Smith, 412 No. Courtland St.

NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to Section 2 of the Act of June 25, 1947, P. L. 1145, its amendments and supplements that the School District of the Borough of East Stroudsburg, Monroe County, Pennsylvania, intends to adopt a Resolution levying an occupational tax for revenue purposes at the rate of forty (40) mills on each dollar of occupational assessment on each resident of this Borough of the age of twenty one years or more. The reason which, in the judgment of the Board of School Directors of said Borough, is that the present revenues of said School District are not sufficient to pay the following items, which are included in the monthly payments to the East Stroudsburg Area Joint Schools under its budget; mandated salary increases and salaries for additional employees; cost of repairs, operation and maintenance of the buildings, grounds, furniture and equipment; and the increased cost of transportation; and also to pay the rental of the School District of the Borough of East Stroudsburg required under existing leases with the East Stroudsburg Area Joint Schools Authority; the amount of revenue estimated to be derived from this tax is the sum of Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars.

By order of the Board of School Directors, Horace G. Walters, President and James S. Bunnell, Secretary.

The vote on the motion was unanimous.

NO. 306 FEBRUARY TERM 1960

ACTION TO QUIET TITLE

To the Above-Named Defendants:

TAKE NOTICE that on the 2nd day of May, 1960, Willie Alfred Schmitt filed his Complaint in the above Court in an Action to Quiet Title to a tract or piece of land situate in Stroud Township, Monroe County, Pa., being composed of Lots Nos. 9, 10 and 11 of the Estate of Peter Keller, deceased, containing 69 acres, more or less, and being the same premises conveyed by Charles Heller, et al., to Isaac Buzzard by deed dated April 14, 1892 and recorded in the Office for the Recording of Deeds, in and for the County of Monroe at Stroudsburg, Pa., in Deed Book 42, page 490, as by reference thereunto will more fully and at large appear. In this Complaint, Plaintiff averred that he and his predecessors in title have acquired title to said premises by adverse possession and prays the Court to adjudge that he is the legal owner of said premises described in the aforesaid deed. You are hereby notified that you may have a claim or interest in said premises as set forth in said Complaint and you are required to plead to said Complaint within 20 days from the date of the last publication of this notice, otherwise, a default judgment will be entered against you forever barring you from asserting any right, title or interest in said premises, unless you commence an Action of Ejectment within 30 days after the entry of said Judgment.

NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the East Stroudsburg Borough School District, Monroe County, Penna., intends to adopt a resolution levying a $10.00 per capita tax ($5.00) under section 679 and $5.00 under Act No. 481, for school purposes at a meeting of the Board of Directors of said School District to be held on the 25th day of May, 1960 at 8:00 P. M. DST.

The reason which, in the judgement of the Board of Directors, necessitates the tax is that the present revenues are not sufficient for the operation of the schools.

The amount of revenue estimated to be derived from this tax is the sum of $32,000.00.

By order of the Board of Directors.

Are you comparing cars in the $1,600 price range?

SAAB offers so much more

$200 - $300 MORE IN EQUIPMENT
SAAB's complete price of $1,895* includes all the following equipment: foam rubber upholstery, individual lounge seats with 7-position backs, arctic-type hot water heating system, undercoating, windshield washers, full instrumentation, padded safety visors, dash clock, adjustable radiator blind, white sidewall tires, safety belt fittings, outside mirror. When comparing car prices, remember that SAAB gives you $200-$300 worth of equipment that usually costs extra.

10 YEARS AHEAD IN BASIC DESIGN
SAAB introduced Front-Wheel-Drive in 1949. The safety advantages and superior handling qualities of this revolutionary power system have been proved over hundreds of millions of miles. Today SAAB is 10 full years ahead of any American compact car in offering Front-Wheel-Drive!

MORE ROOM FOR DRIVING COMFORT
With its special seat track, supplied at no extra cost, SAAB gives the driver up to 47 inches of leg room. Head room, from base of front seat to roof, is 37 inches, and the width of the extra large doors is a full 42½ inches. Compare these liberal dimensions with other cars. SAAB is the small car engineered for really BIG men.

MUCH MORE IN PERFORMANCE
SAAB's three cylinder Dual-Stroke engine provides the same firing frequency as a conventional "six." This smooth power flow, in a wide high-torque range, has enabled SAAB again and again to outperform everything else in its Class.

Here is one of the most popular and fastest selling new cars in Monroe County Today!

DODGE DART

The full-size car that sells for the small-car price!

Why is the Dodge Dart selling so well. The reason is simple! Many other Monroe County car shoppers (like yourself) have found there's no need to compromise when you choose a Dodge Dart. The Dart is not a compact version of a foreign car. It isn't a plain-looking, stripped down economy car. Basically, it's a family car that gives you American-style comfort. It also offers you a choice of two great gas-saving engines—the all-new Economy Slant "6" or the famous Red Ram V8, the engine that beat all comers from the low-priced V8 class on up in the 1960 Mobilgas Run. It costs less to own, less to drive than any other full-size car!

Dodge Dart looks like a million, yet is priced down with the lowest!

Full delivery prices on sedans start as low as . . .

$2430

Instant Local Bank Financing

• 24 NEW CARS IN STOCK . . . ALL MODELS AND PRICE RANGES •

Bring your present car in . . . drive a new Dart home! Call or visit any of these 3 men. They got the Christmas spirit early this year and are anxious to give you a bonus trade-in appraisal toward the popular Dodge Dart!
